Newman Club

Newman club will hold its usual monthly Communion Breakfast this Sunday, following the 9 a.m. Mass in the St. Mary's cafeteria.

A special baccalaureate Mass honoring this year's graduates will be held on Commencement day at 10 a.m. in the Sacred Heart hospital chapel. Dress for the occasion is suits for the men and dresses, heels and hats for the women. The graduates, their families and friends and all other members of the University community are cordially invited by Newman club to participate in this Mass.

Religious Directors

The Religious Directors' association will hold its annual retreat and planning conference at Kitson Springs Friday and Saturday. Accompanying the directors will be three students representing three of the inter-church groups on campus: Bob Randall, University Religious Council president; Maurice Bell, president of the house chaplains' organizations; and Bob Hastings, chairman of Religious Evaluation week for next year. Plans for the participation of religious groups in Orientation week and other events of the next school year will be made at this retreat. Miss Eileen Lindblad of the YWCA is taking reservations, and the program is under the charge of Russ Walker of the YMCA.

Wesley Foundation

The regular meeting of the Koinonia Klass will take place at the First Methodist church Sunday at 9:45 a.m. Cars will leave Gerlinger hall at 9:30 for those wishing rides. Sunday evening at 6 in Gerlinger hall, light refreshments will be followed by the concluding program in the series on the lives of the Apostles, to be presented by Bob Hastings, junior in speech. He will present an account of the life and teachings of John, after the crucifixion of Christ. This will be the last meet-

Oreganas Still Available at SU

More than 100 students still have not picked up their Oreganas. The books are available in the Student Union administrative office on the SU mezzanine, according to Jim Light, this year's business manager.

Students who have withdrawn from school will receive their copies in the mail.

Several Oreganas also are available for students who did not order copies. They may be purchased in the SU administrative office until the end of this week.

Dance Tryout Friday In Gerlinger Annex

Dance tryouts for the University theater's summer productions will be held at 4 p.m. Friday at Gerlinger annex.

Both male and female dancers are needed for the summer session, according to Gloria Lee, summer dance director. Women trying out are to wear pedal pushers, she said. No experience is necessary for the dancers.

Production numbers slated include the musical, "Anything Goes," the children's play, "Sing Ho for a Prince," and a night-club show and oleo acts.

ing of Wesley; however, local students will conduct programs and recreation during the summer months. Those who will be here are urged to watch for posters publicizing these events.

Christian House

Christian house has planned two special events this weekend. The first is an Alumni dinner to be held Saturday at 6 p.m. This is the first of any such activity, and is the concluding event to the fifth birthday celebration of the house, which began in April. Wilma Chance is general chairman for the dinner. Tickets are one dollar with a fifty-cent rate for small children. Graduates and former students who have been active in Christian house during its five years of existence are invited to attend. Reservations should be made through Miss Chance at 4-1425, or at Christian house, 5-3491.

Sunday at 5 p.m. the annual outdoor buffet supper honoring graduating seniors is scheduled. All students may attend the supper and informal program, but seniors are the special guests of the house. For others, tickets are sixty-five cents each. General chairman is June Jackson, with Rosalind Lowrance in charge of tickets. Seniors will tell of their plans for next year and share musical numbers with the group.

During examination week, many projects for the summer months at the house, will be posted, according to John Ihle, house chairman.

The Married Students' group will meet throughout the summer for lawn parties and other informal gatherings. The first of these is scheduled for Tuesday, June 22, at 7:30 p.m. Croquet, horseshoe and other outdoor games will be featured.

Lyle Spears, president, has called a meeting of the executive council, for Wednesday at 6:45 p.m., to choose the recipient of the foreign student scholarship offered by the house, and to elect delegates to the national conference of the Disciples of Christ, to be held at Lake Geneva, Wis., Aug. 29 to Sept. 4. JoAnne Flanders has been named as the voting delegate. She will be one of fifteen delegates from the Christian church to attend the World Council of Churches assembly at Evanston, Ill., Aug. 15 to 31.
