Indian Backfield Ace Leads PCC Rushers

LOS ANGELES-(Special)-Bill Tarr, the scrappy fullback who figured in Stanford's upset of Oregon last week, has captured the rushing lead in the Pacific Coast conference with another fullback, Duke Washington of Washington State, in hot pursuit, according to figures released this week by the PCC Commissioner's office.

Tarr has gained 165 yards in his first two games for an average of 5.9 yards per carry to 158 yards and a 4.8 average for Washington. Joe Arnett, USC sophomore, ranks third with 123 yards.

Sandy Lederman of Washington tops the passing department with 33 completions for 390 yards and one touchdown.

Top Pass-Grabber

Paul Larson, California, has 23 completions and George Shaw, Oregon, 22. All three have shown exceptional accuracy, Larson having had none intercepted and Lederman and Shaw only one each.

Shaw also picked up 43 yards to lead in total offense with 382 yards and two touchdowns. Lederman has 381 yards and Jim Contratto, 255. Arnett has run up five touchdowns in his first two games and leads the scoring department with 30 points while Ted Granger, California; Dick James, Oregon, and Primo Villanueva, UCLA, have three TDs each.

lanueva, UCLA, have three TDs each.

James is the leading pass receiver with 10 receptions for 111 yards and one score while Steve Roake, Washington, has nine receptions and John Stewart, Stanford, and Jim Hanifan and Jim Carmichael, both of California, eight each. Marv Goux and Ellsworth Kissinger, both of USC, and Bob Iverson, Washington State, head the pass interception column, each having snared two opposition aeriels.

Top punters are Jim Withrow, Oregon State with a 50.7 yard average and Bob Heydenfeldt, UCLA, 49. Doug Bradley, UCLA, has the most yardage on punt returns, 74, followed by Aramis Dandoy, USC, 52. Bill Baxter, Idaho, leads in kickoff returns with 90 yards, while Lindon Crow, USC, has 59.

Field Hockey Tryouts Open

First tryouts of the women's Field Hockey club were held Thursday afternoon on Gerlinger field, with about twelve girls turning out for the opening session.

Regular practices will begin next week with the team working out Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons from 4 to 5, according to Miss Janet Woodruff, hockey coach. Any woman interested may still try out at the regular practices next week, Miss Woodruff has announced.

Fraternity Bowling Entries Called for

Fraternities interested in entering a team in the Fraternity Bowling league have been asked to sign up as soon as possible so that final plans for the league may be drawn up, league officials announced Thursday.

Teams wishing to enter may sign up at the Student Union recreation desk in the basement of the SU. Competition will begin within 10 days and will be held in the SU bowling alleys.

PCC Officials To Help Army

LOS ANGELES-(Special)-Two Pacific Coast conference game officials have been chosen to assist in basketball clinics for the U.S. Army Far East Command, PCC Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt disclosed today.

They are Ervin Delman, San Francisco, Calif., and Erling J. Oakland, Ellensburg, Wash. They will depart October 4 from Travis Field, Calif., on their five-week tour.

Present plans call for two five-day clinics in Japan. They are expected to arrive back in the United States on November 8.

The Oregon Field Hockey club will meet with other regional hockey clubs at the Pacific Northwest Field Hockey Conference at Oregon State college Nov. 5, 6, and 7.

A preliminary game with OSC is planned for sometime in October.

Clubs participating in the conference are the University of Washington, Washington State college, College of Puget Sound, University of Idaho, University of Vancouver, University of British Columbia, OSC, and University of Oregon.

The Field Hockey club is affiliated with the Women's Recreation association, the coordinating organization for all women's sports on campus. President of the club is Charlotte Martin.

Noe to Leave Buchan Team

SEATTLE-(AP)—Chet Noe, former Oregon basketball star and high-scoring center for the Buchan Bakers last season, will not be with the Seattle amateur team this year, Manager Bud Howard announced Wednesday. Noe has notified him that he has joined the Ada, Tex., Oilers, Howard said.

In other changes, Frank Fidler, former Seattle high school coach, has been named to replace Washington Freshman Coach Bill Morris at the coaching helm and Eric Roberts and Ed Tucker of the Fort Lewis Warriors, Hartley Kruger of Idaho and Gene Wiggins of Seattle Pacific have been added as players, Howard added.

Buchan's will play this winter in the newly-formed Pacific International League, whose tentative members now include Longview, Wash., Vancouver, B.C., Portland and possibly Eugene.
