Items for this Religious Notes column run each Friday should be in the Oregon Daily Emerald Offices, Allen 301, by 10 a.m. the preceding Thursday.

Religious organizations on the University campus provide students opportunities for worship, study and fellowship. Sunday morning or evening services are held by most groups and several religious foundations plan activities throughout the week.

Baptist Youth Fellowship
"What Christ Means to Me" will be the theme of Sunday evening's Baptist Youth Fellowship at 6:30 p.m. in the First Baptist church, 868 High street. Participants in the program will include members of University sororities and fraternities, varsity athletes and scholarship winners.

At 7:30 p.m. the youth group will join the church congregation to see Billy Graham's hour-long sound film, "The London Crusade."

Baptist Church
Baptist students and their friends will be honored at a buffet supper Sunday from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. at the Baptist church parsonage, 1992 Potter street. The supper is sponsored by the Rev. and Mrs. Charles W. Moore and the University committee of the Emerald Baptist church.

Channing Club
A talk on "Myths of the Ancient and Near East" will be sponsored by Channing club at the Unitarian church, 11th and Ferry streets, at 7 p.m. Sunday. Guest speaker will be Edward L. Ericson, Unitarian church minister.

Refreshments will be served at a social hour after the talk.

Christian House
Christian House, 736 East 16th street, has scheduled three special activities for this weekend, beginning with a Western Round-Up at 8 p.m. tonight. Students have been asked to dress in western style as games, entertainment and event he chuck wagon will carry out the western theme. Carl Cobb, senior in speech, is general chairman of the party. Assisting him are Roger Weaver, sophomore in pre-medic, publicity; Rosalind Lowrance, senior in liberal arts, and Nancy Daniels, food.

A work party will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday. John Ihle, special student, will direct the clean-up and paint-up projects. Lunch will be served at noon so that workers may go directly from Christian House to the Oregon-Utah game.

The regular Sunday program will begin at 9:15 a.m. with a Donut Hour, followed by Bible study, led by Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business. Student membership Sunday will be observed at the 10:50 morning worship service at First Christian church, 1166 Oak street.

Students will be guests of the First Christian church at a supper at 5:30 p.m. Sunday. Lyle Spears, Christian House president; Joanne Flanders, chairman, and Christian House officers are in charge of the program, which will follow the theme, "Students Around the World." The supper is complimentary, but tickets are necessary and may be obtained at the church, Christian House and dormitories. Cars will pick up students at Carson, Straub, Hendricks and Susan Campbell halls at 5:10 p.m.

Plans are being made for the group's annual fall retreat at Kitson Springs Resort, Saturday, Oct. 9. Don Smith, special student, is general chairman. Students who wish to attend should register at Christian House.

Christian Science
The Christian Science student organization will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday on the first floor of Gerlinger hall. Adviser for the group is Mrs. William J. Wheeler.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship
Fred A. Beard, sales manager for Koke-Chapman Printing company, will address the first meeting of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Student Union. Beard is former superintendent of the University press.

Norm Gould, transfer student from SOCE, will be song leader with Cal Hoover, sophomore in architecture, at the piano. Richard Koe, president, will preside.

IVCF will continue its daily noon prayer sessions in addition to sponsoring two campus Bible study groups each week. Time and place of these meetings will be announced in this column next week.

Newman Club
Len Casanova, Newman club adviser, will speak to new students at the group's first fall meeting at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union ballroom. The program will include a short business meeting, followed by dancing. Refreshments will be served.

Catholic students at the University have been invited to attend the Newman club meetings.

Wesley Foundation
The first social event in the new Wesley Foundation building, 1236 Kincaid, will be held at 8 p.m. tonight. The organization will sponsor a "First and Ten" pre-football game mixer, in keeping with the opening home game here Saturday. In addition to dancing and refreshments, the mixer will provide games, entertainment and fellowship. Campus clothes will be in order.

"The Koinonia Klass will meet at 9:30 a.m. Sunday in the chapel of the First Methodist church, 1185 South Willamette. The college-age study group discusses the Bible in order to understand its values and relation to life. The Rev. Ken Peterson, Wesley adviser, will lead a discussion of the fourth gospel. Cars will leave Wesley for the church at 9:20 a.m.

Sunday evening at 5:30 a light supper will be served, followed by a program of worship, drama and communion. A program in observance of World-Wide Communion Sunday will be featured.

Following a potluck supper at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Charles Howard, professor of law, will speak on the World Council of Churches held this summer at Evanston, Ill. Howard was one of eight Methodist lay delegates from the United States to the convention.

All social functions and meetings of the group will be held in the new Wesley building now, unless students are notified otherwise.
