

UO Boasts Top Canadian Jumper

By Gordon Rice

One of Canada's outstanding high jumpers has enrolled in the University of Oregon, but won't be on Coach Bill Bowerman's track team next spring.

The reason? She's a girl. Alice Whitty, holder of the Canadian women's high jump record and a participant in both the 1952 Olympics and the 1954 British Empire Games, has enrolled in the University to train under Coach Bowerman.

The 20-year-old Miss Whitty broke the Canadian women's mark of 5'3", which had stood for many years, at Vancouver, B.C., last year with a leap of 5'3 1/2".

Third in BEG

She also finished third in her event in the British Empire Games at Vancouver last summer with a jump of 5'3". Two years earlier she placed tenth in the Olympic games at Helsinki, Finland.

Miss Whitty decided to come to Oregon to train with Bowerman in preparation for the 1956 Olympics at Melbourne, Australia, which she intends to enter "if I am good enough."

The dark-haired young athlete said that a number of factors influenced her selection of Oregon.

Her coach at the University of British Columbia, where she was a freshman last year, advised her to come to Oregon because of Bowerman's reputation as a coach and because the physical education program here was superior to that available at UBC.

In addition, a number of Canadian athletes now enrolled here urged her to transfer. Doug Clement, the half-miler from Vancouver; Bruce Springbett, a sprinter from Victoria, B.C., and Bob Reid, a pole vaulter from Vancouver, all of whom were on Bowerman's track squad last spring, suggested the University to her.

Majoring in PE

Miss Whitty is majoring in physical education while she is here, and intends to graduate in two years, by taking an extra-large study load. Eventually she plans to teach physical education, and intends to get a teacher's certificate at UBC after her work here is completed.

Bowerman, who admits this is the first time he has ever coached a woman athlete, says it is a "unique experience." He points out, however, that as in the case of any athlete, the ones that are willing to work become the best.

If this is the only criteria, Miss Whitty should do a fine job at Melbourne. She plans to work out twice a week for the remainder of the year.

Webfoots Aim Drills For California Clash

Oregon's injury-plagued Webfoots ran through a two-hour workout Tuesday afternoon as they prepared for their Saturday afternoon clash with the California Bears at Berkeley.

With quarterbacks Johnny Keller and Wally Russell filling in for the still-injured George Shaw, the first two varsity teams ran through short pass patterns and ground maneuvers in a scrimmage session.

Halfbacks Dick Pavlat and Dick James reeled off some good runs. And Jasper McGee, the sophomore fullback who hails from Berkeley high school, was back in harness for the practice.

Coach Len Casanova's forces will entrain for the Cal encounter Thursday night. It will be their third PCC venture in 1954. Previously, of course, the Ducks drubbed Idaho 41-0 and lost an 18-13 nod to Stanford.

In their last two visits to the Bears' domain the Webfoots have come away with well-played games. The 1951 affair saw then-freshman George Shaw lead Oregon to a near upset, with the Rose-Bowl-bound Bruins eking out a 28-26 win.

And last year Oregon held Cal to a 0-0 tie in the rain down South.

California Coach Praises Webfoots

SAN FRANCISCO-(AP)-California Coach Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf said Tuesday, "Oregon is better than the record shows." Pappy's Bears meet Oregon in Berkeley Saturday for their conference opener after the 27-13 loss to Ohio State in last week's inter-sectional.

"As I see it," Waldorf said, "Oregon hasn't jelled yet. It may find itself against us."

Bowling Beginning Set for Thursday

Bowling competition in all-campus mixed doubles will begin Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Student Union bowling alleys, SU Recreation Director Louis Bellissimo announced Tuesday.

Bellisimo said that openings were available for three more teams in the leagues. At least one member of each team must be a University of Oregon student.

The doubles teams will bowl on Thursday nights for seven weeks beginning this week.

Hale Kane Victorious

Hale Kane entered the win column by virtue of forfeit over their opponents from Gamma Hall. The Gamma team arrived too late to start the game as scheduled.

Sigma Chi Blasts Teke Forces in 42-0 IM Tilt

Bob Walberg's right arm and the fine pass receiving of Doug Ruhlman paved the way for Sigma Chi's 42-0 walkaway over Tau Kappa Epsilon in intramural action Tuesday.

Walberg twice threw scoring passes to Ruhlman, one covering 72 yards, and pitched one good for 42 yards and a TD to Bud Hinkson. George Spores circled right end for 11 yards, Don Soebbe ran an intercepted pass back 50 yards, and Gene Jones picked off another Teke aerial and rambled 37 yards for the other Sigma Chi scores. Three passes from Walberg to Ruhlman, and one from Spores to Hinkson accounted for Sigma Chi extra points. The other two points resulted from a safety in the first quarter.

Sigma Chi now boasts a record of two wins and no losses after their 7-0 victory over Alpha Tau Omega Monday. The Sigs will go after their third win Friday afternoon at 3:50 against Phi Kappa Psi. The Phi Psi's have a record of one win and no losses.

Fijis Grab Second

Phi Gamma Delta scored a hard-earned 13-0 win over Campbell Club Tuesday afternoon, as they recorded their second win in two days.

Roy Karr scored the first Fiji TD late in the first quarter as he slipped over from the one-foot line, after a long march. Karr was on the receiving end of Chuck Feheley's pass for the extra point. Another pass, from Feheley to Jack Lally, covering 36 yards, marked the end of the scoring for the Fiji's. The Campbell Clubbers drove 88 yards to the Fiji 8, only to see their big drive halted as the game ended.

Ray Giansante's fine defensive play and vicious blocking on offense for the Fijis stood out in the contest.

Counselors Triumphant

Phil White tossed three touchdown passes as he led the Dorm Counselors to an 18-0 win over Philadelphia House in the first intramural football action for both squads yesterday.

Pass interceptions were the rule rather than the exception, as both teams relied almost completely on a passing attack.

White's first touchdown toss was a 40 yard pass-run play to Cameron Thom in the first quarter. Tom Windbigler and Bob Bowser hauled in the other scoring aeriels.

SAE Blanks Sigma Nu

Thanks to a consistent array of touchdown passes, defending champs, Sigma Alpha Epsilon were able to crumble Sigma Nu 34-0. Captain Rex Davis showed the way with five touchdown passes and four conversion aeriels in leading his team to its second winning effort in two days.

Scoring the initial touchdown was Joyle Dahl on a 30-yard pass from Davis. The pair combined again for the extra point. In the second half the same combination completed another scoring pass of 40 yards. Stan Savage got the point after touchdown.

Leading the scorers was Jim Hardin, who grabbed three TD passes from Davis for plays totaling 20, 25 and 30 yards. Jim Tennyson also appeared in the point column by taking two Davis tosses for conversions. S.A.E. captured first down laurels, 2-1.

Nestor Wins by One

Kicking off the 1954 intramural freshman play, a spirited group from Nestor Hall squeezed by a Hunter Hall contingent 7-6 in a game which could have gone either way.

The Nestor men, captained by Tom Young, were sparkplugged by Dick Crist who completed a 45-yard touchdown pass to Marvin Woods when he spectacularly grabbed the ball from the clutches of the opposition. Crist completed another aerial for the extra point, this time selecting Jerry Martin as his target.

Leading the Hunter attack was Captain Gary Mark who combined with Jim Hilands on a

Idaho Captain Out With Knee Injury

MOSCOW, Idaho-(AP)-A knee injury suffered in last week's game with San Jose State may sideline Idaho football captain Burdette Hess for the season.

Doctors said Monday the 210-pound first line guard will miss Saturday's game with College of the Pacific and may sit out Idaho's other 1954 contests.

dramatic 66-yard pass-and-run play. Both teams totaled four first downs.

Phi Deltas Win, 21-0

Phi Delta Theta made it two-straight IM football wins Tuesday, by humbling the Kappa Sigma team 21-0.

Dick Schlosstein starred in the win by tossing three TD passes. The receivers were Jim Roberts, Jim Spiekerman and Larry Hibbard. Wagner notched the three extra points.

First downs favored the Phi Deltas 3-1. The John Talbot-captained losers marked up one.

Cherney Nabs 7-6 Win

An elated Cherney Hall freshman team edged the Straub Frosh 7-6 Tuesday in their league opener. Captain Bob Pfeister led the Cherney drive with a touchdown pass to Vern Scott and the vital conversion toss to Don Sielers to clinch the test.

Jim Theiring grabbed a pass from Captain Gary Brown for the only Straub score. The extra point try was broken up as Straub attempted to pass. The Straub club led in first downs by a 5-3 count.

Cox Returns To UW Camp

SEATTLE-(AP)-Apparently fully recovered from a head injury, sophomore Bobby Cox turned up at the Washington football drills Monday and appeared slated for frontline quarterbacking duties when the Huskies tackle UCLA here Saturday.

Cox was injured Saturday in Washington's 17-7 win over Oregon State. Sandy Lederman, the Huskies' No. 1 quarterback, broke a leg in the same contest and will be out for the season.

Coach Johnny Cherberg had three other quarterbacks working in Monday's drill. They are sophomore Chuck McAninch, Everett; Mel McCain, Seattle, and Ron Terry, a transfer from Banning, Calif., Junior college.

Four Teams Win In Kegling Action

Alpha Tau Omega, Theta Chi, Phi Kappa Sigma, and Sigma Chi recorded wins in intra-fraternity bowling league openers Tuesday night.

The ATO's, led by Blake Boggs, downed Pi Kappa Alpha 4-0 in total points.

Theta Chi rolled over Tau Kappa Epsilon 4-0. Jim Johnson was the game's high bowler with a 220.

Phi Kappa Sigma tumbled over the Delta Upsilon team 3-1 while Sigma Chi downed Lambda Chi Alpha 3-1, with the help of its top bowler, Tom Stamper.
