

Religious Notes

Deadline for Religious Notes is 10 a.m. each Thursday. Items should be turned in at the Emerald office, Allen hall 301.

Channing Club

Roland K. Rodman, chairman of the Lane County Republican central committee, will be the guest speaker at Channing Club's meeting, Sunday. The talk, on the Republican campaign for 1954, will be at 7 p.m. at the Unitarian church, 11th and Ferry streets.

Christian House

Tonight an informal open house has been planned at Christian House, 736 E. 16th. Table games, music and other activities will be featured.

Students will leave Christian House at 8 a.m. Saturday for their annual fall retreat at Kitson Springs resort. Guest speaker will be Rev. Donald Helseth, minister of the Corvallis Christian church, who will use the theme "What Is Really Essential in Christianity?" Workshops will be led by the following students: Joan Wilson, John Ihle, Phyllis Bates, Roger Weaver, Rosalind Lowrance, June Fulco, Jack Hart and Tim Kribs. General chairman of the retreat is Don Smith. Students planning to attend the retreat should take a sack lunch and wear casual clothes.

The usual Sunday program at Christian House will begin with the 9:15 a.m. Donut Hour, followed by Bible study, taught by Victor P. Morris, dean of the business administration school.

Sunday evening, students will open a series of discussions on "Breaking Down the Walls." The meeting will begin at 5:30 p.m. A fireside is scheduled for 9 p.m. Sunday.

The executive council will meet at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Wesley Foundation

A one-day retreat at Moose Park on Fern Ridge lake will be held by Wesley foundation Saturday. Cars leave the Wesley building, 1236 Kincaid, at 8:30 a.m. Saturday. The retreat will follow the theme, "Steering Towards the Bulls-eye," and will include recreation, discussions, singing, fellowship and worship, followed by a "Spanish Holiday" dance in the evening.

On Sunday morning the Koinonia Klass will continue its discussion of the fourth gospel, led by the Rev. Ken Peterson, Wesley director. Cars will leave Wesley at 9:20 a.m. for the class at 9:30 a.m. in the chapel of the First Methodist church.

The Rev. S. Raynor Smith, pastor of the First Methodist church and former minister to India, will speak at the Sunday evening program, following a light supper at 5:30. His topic, "Safari to India," will be an illustrated discussion of religion, the caste system, social conditions, and missionary work in India. He also will display various relics and costumes which he gathered during his nine years in India.

The first in a series of discussions led by international students will be held at the usual Tuesday potluck supper, beginning at 5:30 p.m. Language, customs, social conditions and political and religious beliefs of several foreign countries will be discussed in the series.

Newman Club

Newman Club students will meet at Sacred Heart hospital at 7 p.m. Sunday. A short business meeting will begin with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel and will be followed by a social hour in the recreation room. Dancing, refreshments and other entertainment have been planned.

Plans for dances, parties, picnics and meetings several Sunday evenings during fall term are being made.

Services at St. Mary's Catholic church include Sunday masses at 6 a.m., 7 a.m., 8 a.m., 9 a.m., 10 a.m., 11:15 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. Confessions are held Saturday from 4 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m.
