

Excellent Response Reported In Campaign

Response to the 1954 United Appeal on campus has been excellent, says Janet Gustafson, general student chairman of the drive.

Realizing that this is to be the only drive this year, many are giving a dollar instead of the 55 cents suggested, she reported.

The goal for the drive, which ends Wednesday, has been set at $1000. At least two living organizations have achieved 100 per cent participation already. These are Chi Omega and Kappa Kappa Gamma.

This year's United Appeal combines the Lane County Chest and the Red Cross for the first time. It supports the activities of 31 organizations. Those receiving assistance from the budget are Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YMCA, YWCA, community center, Association for the Aid of Retarded Children and several youth funds.

The Red Cross includes such services as first aid and water safety, assistance to service men and women with the armed forces, their home service activities and the blood program.

Collections on campus are being handled by members of Kwama and Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's and women's service honoraries.

A permanent plaque and a miniature duck is to be awarded to the men's and women's organizations who contribute the highest amount per capita.

Essays Will Win Prizes, Fellowship

Students interested in international affairs have until Dec. 15 to submit essays in the Foreign Service Journal prize essay contest, it has been announced.

The essays, to be written on "The Organization of American Representation Abroad," may win up to $1000 or a full fellowship, amounting to $1750, at the school of advanced international studies of Johns Hopkins university in Washington. They will be judged by a committee of six nationally known men.

Besides the $1000 grand prize, there are three first prizes, each worth $750.

Full details of the contest may be obtained by writing the Foreign Service Journal, contest committee, 1908 G St., N.W., Washington 6, D.C.

Delts Capture Derby Award

Delta Tau Delta won the AWS rotating trophy for the highest percentage of participation in last Friday night's Bunion Derby. Second and third place winners were Lambda Chi Alpha and the Yeomen.

The women's living organization receiving the most money will be announced in tomorrow's Emerald according to Marge Harmon and Marlene Grassesche, co-chairmen of the judging.

Both first place winners will receive records donated by Graves Music store.

UO Radio Forums To Start Tonight

The first University of Oregon radio forum of the year will be broadcast over station KOAC tonight at 8:30, according to W. J. Robert, associate professor of business and program director for the forum series.

Topic of the forum will be "Should Educational Opportunities be Open to All?" Donald E. Tope, associate professor of education, will act as moderator for the discussion.

Panel members will be Paul Jacobson, dean of the school of education; Harold Stears, assistant superintendent of the San Francisco public schools, and Virgil Smith, assistant superintendent of Seattle public schools.

The forum programs are presented each Monday night during the school year. Participants are faculty members from the University and distinguished visiting speakers.

Women's Living Groups To Have Pictures Taken

Pictures of women's living organizations for the 1955 Oregoniana will continue being taken this week, according to John Shaffer, photography editor. White blouses and dark blue blazers will be the appropriate attire for the women.

Pictures will be taken from 9 a.m. on throughout the day. An Oregoniana representative will be around to each house at the evening meal the day before pictures are to be taken. She will remind the women of their appointments and answer any questions which the women have concerning the method of picture-taking or attire.

Shaffer stressed the necessity of proper dress for the pictures. "It is especially important that the houses follow the specified clothing to be worn, so that the pictures will be neat and unified," said Shaffer. The blue blazers will be provided by Kennell-Ellis, Oregoniana photographers, as has been done in past weeks.

Pictures which will be taken this week are as follows: Monday, Alpha Xi Delta and Ann Judson house; Tuesday, Carson, first floor and Zeta Tau Alpha; Wednesday, Highland House and Pi Beta Phi; Thursday, University House and Carson, second floor.

Press Conference Set for Journalists

The 28th annual Oregon High School Press conference will be held on campus Oct. 22 and 23. Several hundred high school students and their advisers will come to Eugene for the event.

Delegates will be the guests of the University at the Oregon versus San Jose State football game Oct. 22. They will also attend panel and departmental meetings.

Jay Eyerman of Los Angeles, a photographer for Life magazine, will speak at the banquet in the Student Union ballroom. Geneva Foss, supervisor of publications in the Spokane public schools, and Bob Blackburn, west coast sportscaster of Portland radio station KEX, are among the other speakers the delegates will hear.

Eric W. Allen hall, the new journalism building, will be the site of many of the meetings. The Oregon Scholastic press is sponsoring the conference.

Campus Briefs

Norma Sarsguard, Barbra Bryan and Elliot W. Carlson constitute the list of infirmity patients Sunday, according to hospital records. The number of students now receiving medical attention is a low from the high of 14 who were patients last week.

Amphibians tryouts are scheduled for tonight at 7:30 in Gerlinger pool. Olivia Tharaldson, president, has announced. Present members of the organization must meet at 7 p.m. for special instructions preceding the tryouts.

A book sale will be held at one end of the newspaper room in the University library Wednesday and Thursday between 2 and 5 p.m.

Petitions for World University Service chairmanship are due at 4 p.m. Monday, Oct. 18.

"HAMELBURGER, YOU ARE A HOPHEAD"

NO WORDS CAN EXPRESS the contempt I feel for you, Sir... for not exhorting your Pater to invite me to yacht it with you to Nassau

... When it was I who revealed to you that Paradisiacal comfort you now enjoy... enjoy sedentarily, — when you study in your room or lounge at the fireplace; and enjoy peripatetically, — shoveling snow, racing in the bridle (bridle, Sir) paths, or duding it in the sands of the desert. I could go on and on and on, but what boots it when your gratitude is proven so thin, yet the benefit so great. For you, yourself, have time and again enthusiastically vouchsafed that FRYE JET BOOTS (that I brought into your life) are the best friends a man's feet ever had — the most versatile, blissful, irreplaceable, nigh-indestructible, and indubitably indubitable footwear since ever. When you examine your exchequer and discover how this one style, which is a dozen styles in one, has enriched you through its economy and versatility, forget if you can, what duty you owe the person who has so richly endowed you. For I can utter no more; words fail me.

P.S. Dear Reader, if Hamelburger has been denounced too hastily, you can judge if you will permit recounting the full tale of FRYE'S JET BOOTS. These incomparable, one and original FRYEs are made of finest chrome tanned Calfskin specially crimped on the last for instep-and-ankle sculpture-fit, and are leather-lined for extra wear and protection. For biking, hunting, riding; for horse, auto or plane; for wind, sun, or rain, they're the best friends a man's feet ever had. The one and original FRYEs cost no more than the others, sometimes less.
