

Religious Notes

Deadline for Religious Notes is 10 a.m. Thursday. News about religious organizations on campus for this column should be turned in at the Emerald office, 301 Allen.

Luther House

A spaghetti dinner has been planned for tonight at Luther House, 1376 Alder. The dinner will last from 5 to 7 p.m. and prices are 75 and 50 cents. Marjory Gotter is chairman, with John Wilson acting as head chef. Working on decorations are Roger Danielson, Barbara McGee and Don Schwartz.

E. S. Wengert, head of the political science department, will be the speaker at the 6 p.m. Sunday meeting. A light snack will be served by Roger Danielson and Mary Lou Sunderland after the evening program.

Wednesday a noon luncheon will be held from 12 to 12:50 p.m. by the women of the local Lutheran churches.

Students have been urged to sign up for a Bible study group. The groups meet at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. Tuesday and at 2 p.m. Wednesday.

"Lute" team has been entered in the church volleyball league and plays Thursday evenings. Any boy interested is invited to become a member of the team.

The Lutheran regional retreat has been scheduled for Oct. 29 to 31 at Camp Magruder. Students may begin signing up at Luther House.

Clinic to Sponsor Club for Stutterers

The Block and Tackle club, sponsored by the speech and hearing clinic to help those who stutter, will have its first weekly meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union, according to Kenneth Scott Wood, director of the clinic and associate professor of speech.

In an effort to help those who stutter or stammer, weekly meetings under Wood's direction provide situations for the use of various forms of group therapy as an adjunct to the individual therapy offered by the speech clinic. All those who stutter or have fluency blocks in speech are invited to attend.

Kiddie Karnival Petition Due Next Wednesday

Petitions for membership on Kiddie Karnival committees may be obtained in the ASUO box on the third floor of the Student Union. They must be returned to the ASUO box by Wednesday. Any woman enrolled in the University is eligible to petition.

Committees open for the YW-CA-sponsored Kiddie Karnival are: promotion (posters, flying speeches, flyers), script, decoration, prizes, booths and games and entertainment.

cussion of the fourth gospel, led by the Rev. Ken Peterson, Wesley director. The class meets in the chapel of the First Methodist church, 1185 Willamette, and rides are furnished from Wesley foundation, 1236 Kincaid, at 9:20 a.m.

The Sunday evening program will begin with a light supper at 5:30. This Sunday's meeting will begin a series of discussions entitled "University Life." Three groups will meet simultaneously each Sunday evening through Nov. 14. The three groups in the series will be "John Wesley: His Life and Thought," led by the Rev. Bob Burtner; "The Individual and His Faith," led by the Rev. Ken Peterson, and "Christianity and Modern Thought," led by the Rev. Rector Johnson.

Film strips on the United Nations will be shown in observance of United Nations week at the potluck dinner meeting at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Choir practice will be held at 6:15 p.m. Thursday. Chapel will begin at 9 p.m.

The new Wesley foundation building will be dedicated Oct. 23. A dedication banquet is being planned for that date.

Christian House

An informal open house will be held tonight at Christian House, 736 E. 16th.

Sunday activities at Christian

House begin with a Donut Hour at 9:15 a.m., followed by a Bible study class, taught by Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration.

Charles G. Howard, professor of law, will speak at the 5:30 p.m. meeting Sunday. Howard, who was an official delegate to the World Council of Churches Assembly at Evanston, Ill., this summer, will tell about the convention.

A fireside discussion has been scheduled from 9 to 10 p.m. Sunday.

The executive council will meet at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Married students will hold their first potluck dinner this year at 6:15 p.m. Monday. The program, around a Chinese theme, will be provided by Jean and Tso Wang, who are leaving for Singapore in November. Host couples for the dinner will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chaney. Couples should bring a hot dish and a salad or dessert. A baby sitter will be provided at Christian House.

Newman Club

All Catholic students have been invited to attend a Newman Club meeting at 7 p.m. Sunday. The short meeting will be opened by the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the Sacred Heart hospital chapel and will be followed by a social hour.
