

Phi Delts Champs, Blank SAE's 12-0

The combination of fine passing by Dick Schlosstein, and a charging defensive line totaled up yesterday to give the Phi Delta Theta eleven a 12-0 victory over Sigma Alpha Epsilon and the intramural football championship.

The first of the Phi Delts touchdowns was set up when an SAE punt was blocked on their own 30 yard line. After four plays, Schlosstein passed to end Carl Hastings for a touchdown. The conversion was good, but was called back by a roughing penalty, making the halftime score 6-0.

The only other score of the game came in the final period, when Schlosstein connected on a pass to end Bob Wagner for a six pointer. The conversion attempt again failed. The Phi Delts scored a third touchdown, but it was called back by an offside penalty.

SAE was piloted by quarterback Rex Davis, who showed a fine passing attack, but was troubled by the Phi Delts secondary as they intercepted three

Webfoots Prepare For San Jose 11

Coach Len Casanova ran his Webfoot charges through stiff punting scrimmage drills Monday as the Oregons prepped for a non-conference tilt with San Jose state Saturday.

Duck kickers George Shaw, Tom Crabtree and Dick James booted to reserve halfbacks with the rest of the squad covering on the full-speed drills. Casanova and his assistants checked tackling fundamentals carefully as the Ducks attempted to cut down opposition punt returns.

Offensive dummy scrimmage took up the remainder of the afternoon with the third team defending for first and second unit plays. The scrimmage workout concluded with short pass work with Shaw and John Keller doing the aerial work to halfbacks.

The Ducks are at near full strength as far as injuries are concerned. Captain Ron Pfeister and Jim Potter, junior guard, took light workouts with no pads. Pfeister is suffering from a rib injury sustained in the Southern California contest.
