Eugene Police Cite Drivers

Eugene police officers have cited some 700 to 800 drivers for driving violations in the University area since the beginning of fall term, according to Police Chief Ted Brown.

However fewer parking cases have come before the student court than during the same period last year.

"The appearance of the city police seems to have made people stop parking in restricted zones although parking is still under University jurisdiction," Don Rotenberg, former court chairman, said.

"On the whole people seem to be driving more carefully and courteously since the city police have taken over the area," Rotenberg noted.

College smokers from coast to coast prefer Luckies to any other brand. Luckies lead, and by a wide margin, according to the latest, biggest college survey. Once again, the No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better. They taste better because Lucky Strike is the cigarette of fine tobacco... and "It's Toasted" to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. This explains the Doodle below, which is: Eskimo seminar enjoying Luckies in badly built classroom. Like all real cool people, Eskimos know Luckies taste better.
