Shaw Remains Offense Leader

Oregon's Quarterback George Shaw remained the top offensive performer in the nation this week, according to unofficial NCAA figures.

Last year's total offense leader, Paul Larson of California, took over as the nation's No. 1 passer and was runner-up to Shaw in total offense. Shaw's total is 845 yards gained to Larson's 675.

In the pass department, Larson has connected on 54 out of 86 passes, with only three interceptions, for 678 yards and four touchdowns. Shaw, last week's leader, has completed 53 out of 106 attempts for 748 yards, and has had six intercepted. Shaw also has four successful touchdown tosses.

Pierce in Running

In tenth position in the passing parade is San Jose Quarterback Benny Pierce, who will direct his team against Oregon this weekend at Eugene. Pierce has completed 33 of 59 passes for 444 yards, but has yet to score via the aerial route and has had five intercepted.

James Drops

Halfback Dick James of Oregon also slipped from his top spot as pass receiver. California Wing Jim Hanifan moved out in front with 22 receptions for 269 yards and two TDs. James is second with 19 catches for 256 yards, and also has two touchdowns to his credit.

Webfoots Grind For San Jose 11

With an eye to the hard-running San Jose State backfield, Oregon went through a rugged defensive scrimmage Wednesday afternoon. An offensive unit ran plays from the Spartans split-T offense against the Oregon forward walls in an effort to prepare the defenders for the Saturday clash at Hayward field.

Following the defensive work, Coach Len Casanova sent his charges through a short offensive scrimmage. Quarterbacks George Shaw, Johnny Keller, Wally Russell, and Don Holt took turns guiding the offense which was confined to ground plays.

May Not Play

Still on the doubtful list for the San Jose game are Ron Pheister, Jim Potter, Fred Jacobs and Don Jacobs. All are likely to be available if needed, however.

The Sparts come north with a 3-1 season's record. Coach Bob Bronzan's club has won over Idaho 38-7, Utah State 20-0, and Arizona State (Tempe) 19-12, but was mauled by California 45-0.
