

Ducks Fight With Huskies Volleyball Victors In Seattle Game Saturday Led by Phi Delts

Oregon will be out for their first win over Washington in six years tomorrow when the Ducks and Huskies meet at Seattle in a Pacific Coast Conference football clash. Kickoff time is 2 p.m.

The expected aerial duel between All-American candidate George Shaw and brilliant Husky sophomore Bobby Cox is expected to draw about 35,000 to the double-decked Washington stadium. It will be the 47th game between the two schools on the gridiron and the Huskies hold a 25-17 win margin with four ties.

For the first time since Len Casanova took over the reins of Oregon football, Oregon is the favorite in the game. This role has been granted on the basis of more experience in the Oregon front-line plus the brilliant leadership of Shaw and his passing.

The Ducks will be gunning for revenge for the five straight defeats suffered at the hands of Washington. The string started in 1949 with the Huskies winning a narrow 28-27 victory and continued through the 1953 campaign in which the Ducks lost 14-6. Particularly Oregon is seeking revenge for the murderous 63-6 loss in 1951 when the present veterans were freshmen.

The Washington-Oregon game is scheduled to be broadcast over 16 Oregon radio stations Saturday with broadcast time to begin at 1:45 p.m.

The stations include: KBND, Bend; KJUN, Redmond; KYJC, Medford; KRNR, Roseburg; KBKE, Baker; KWRC, Pendleton; KTLI, Tillamook; KODL, The Dalles; KPOJ, Portland; KVAS, Astoria; KASH, Eugene; KNPT, Newport; KYBM, La Grande; KOOS, Coos Bay; KFLW, Klamath Falls, and KSRV, Ontario.

Oregon will take the field with a lead over Washington in all offensive and defensive team statistics. The Ducks lead the coast in pass offense and defense and rank high in all other departments. Washington meanwhile, is high only in the pass offense category, where it rates second behind Oregon.

Fans will see two of the nation's top passers in action at Seattle with Shaw leading the nation and the coast in total yards gained from aeriels. Cox ranks third on the coast with 524 yards to Shaw's 885. Shaw has completed 60 passes in 126 attempts for a percentage of .468 while Cox boasts a .452 average on 33 completions in 73 attempts since taking over from the injured Sandy Lederman.

Oregon will hold a slight weight advantage in both the line and the backfield over the Huskies. The two teams should be at virtually full strength for the game with only Duck right-half Walt Gaffney and Husky end Jim Houston doubtful starters. The Duck wingback is recovering from a sprained back and will likely be replaced by Lloyd Powell.

Washington will probably open with Houston and Corky Lewis at ends, Gene Perdersen and Ed Sheron at tackles, Larry Rhodes and Jerry Langer at guards, and Dell Jensen at center in the line. In the backfield, the foursome will include Cox at quarterback, Bob Dunn and veteran Bill Albrecht at halfbacks, and Stewart Crook at the fullback post.

The Ducks will string along with Hal Reeve or Phil McHugh and Dick Mobley at ends, Lon Stiner and Keith Tucker at tackles, Reanous Cochrane and Jack Patera at guards, and Captain Ron Pheister at center. Opening in the backfield will be Shaw at quarterback, Dick James and Gaffney or Powell at the halfback slots, and Jasper McGee at fullback.

Coast Pass Statistics Led by Shaw, Larson

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California's Paul Larson and Oregon's George Shaw have lengthened their leads over each other in passing and total offense, respectively, according to Pacific Coast Conference statistics released this week by the Commissioner's office.

Larson has pitched 68 completions in 104 attempts during the first six weekends of play to outrank Shaw, who has 60 in 126 tries. Larson has thrown for 845 yards and six touchdowns, and has had only four intercepted, Shaw for 885 and five TD's. The total offense figures are reversed with Shaw totalling 1048 yards, having added 163 rushing yards to his passing figures, and Larson 858, Paul having gained 13 yards on the ground. Larson has been responsible for scoring 10 touchdowns to seven for Shaw.

Phi Delta Theta maintained its undefeated record in League A volleyball yesterday as they overwhelmed the Lambda Chi Alpha team in two straight games, 15-2, 15-2. Lanky Bob Wegner's deadly slams were instrumental in the Phi Delt victory, as his team provided him many good set-ups.

Phil Crundell, Dick Childs, Bob Gray and Bob Bye spearheaded a vicious Sigma Phi Epsilon team which captured its second start in intramural play by trouncing Delta Tau Delta, 15-1, 15-4.

In B league action, Phi Psi slipped by Chi Psi two games to one. It was all Phi Psi in the first fracas and they took 11 straight points and went on to win 15-3. Chi Psi bounced right back in the second tilt, however, winning 15-11. In the finale, Phi Psi was too strong and posted a 15-7 victory, thus winning the series.

In frosh B league play, Chorney hall edged the Straub Frosh two games to one. Straub won the first game 15-13, but Chorney took the second, 16-14 in overtime, and captured the final and deciding tilt when time ran out with them leading 3-1.

"Oh Sob," She Sobbed

Don't sob young miss, birthdays are gay, happy times, and besides, you don't look a bit older. Birthdays are something that people seem to be having all the time and at different ages. But once in a lifetime, for each person, there comes a birthday that isn't quite like any other. Of course, we refer to the golden age of 21. This is when you can pack up your I. D. (by the bushel), trot off to your favorite t. and flaunt it in the bartender's face. And believe us there is no one who would rather have age 21 I.D. flaunted in their face than
