TopsinLeague

The Physical Plant team of the faculty bowling league took top honors for the night from the Flying Saucers by nine pins as they captured three points from the Grenadiers, a team from the Army ROTC department. The Flying Saucers also took three points from their opponents, the Vitamins, in league action.

The Eight Balls took the total pin honors for the night with a series total of 2612 pins. The Markers team took second spot in the total pins with a series total of 2599 pins.

Monday's results:

Vitamins 7	98-830-726-	-2404
Flying Saucers	33-961-860-	-2554
Eight Balls 8	22-851-939-	-2612
Markers 9		-2599
Jets 8	20-831-848-	-2499
Hot Rods	32-882-810-	2524
Physical Plant	85-895-785-	-2565
Grenadiers	56-873-887	-2516
League Standings:	Won	Lost
The same of the street of the same	****
Physical Plant	18	6
Physical Plant Hot Rods	18	6
Physical Plant Hot Rods	18	6 10 10
Physical Plant	18	10 10 10
Physical Plant Hot Rods Eight Balls Grenadiers	18	6 10 10 11 11
Physical Plant Hot Rods Eight Balls Grenadiers Irts Markers	18	6 10 10 11 12 14
Physical Plant Hot Rods Eight Balls Grenadiers	18	10 10 11 12 14 15

Thirty-Eight

eight college football teams are still undefeated and untied, according to information released Held by Varsity by the NCAA this week. Seven of them are major schools.

UCLA, Cincinnati and Montana State top the unbeaten list with seven victories each. Ohio State, Miami, Fla., Arkansas and Oklahoma have won six each. Whitworth of Spokane also this weekend. is in this class.

Major teams dropped from the unbeaten and untied rankings running workouts in preparation over the weekend were West Vir- for Saturday's big test against ginia, Boston college and Virginia Tech.

IM Schedule

3:50 Theta Chi A vs. Tau Kappa Epsilon A, court 40.

4:35 Hale Kane A vs. Philadelphia House A, court 40.

Nestor Hall A vs. French Hall A, court 40.

Physical Plant Duckling Braves Rook Interference Oregon State Pros

John Raventos, Oregon Frosh left tackle, heads for a tackle on Dick Edwards (46) Oregon State Rook right half, as Jack Hogan, (67) Rook left guard, and Ted Searle (36) OSC fullback run interference. Emerald photo by Rod Sunderland

Still Unbeaten Light Workouts

Concentration on play timing, with some work on scrimmages keynoted Monday afternoon workouts, as Oregon's varsity and freshman grid squads pointed toward out-of-state games

Coach Len Casanova's sweat clothes-clad varsity held light, UCLA in Los Angeles. The Webfoot backs and ends ran pass patterns, while linemen concentrated on unit charging and finer blocking points.

A dummy punt workout featuring the whole squad and an offensive scrimmage with light blocking bags constituted the "meat" of the session. The Ducks concluded the short practice with wind sprints.

End Phil McHugh with a hip cause of injuries, took full part Wash., this Friday. and may play against the Ukes.

Coach Bill Hammer's Frosh took time to pose for Oregana photographers, then moved into ell, who hurt his ankle, were the closed with the first and seconly injured from the Washing- ond teams in a pass scrimmage ton game, but both saw full and the third and fourth units action in the Monday rehear- in a full tilt rushing conflict. The sals. Walt Gaffney, senior back freshmen meet Gray's Harbor game for Corvallis the morning who missed the Husky tilt be- junior college at Grays Harbor,

Sports Staff

Desk Editor: Bruce Tennant.

Down Local SDX In Friday Meeting

Oregon's chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, won and lost a touch football game Saturday on the Intramural field.

Only one member of the Oregon State chapter showed up for the game, and technically, the game was forfeited to Oregon. However, the Oregon chapter played the replacements who showed up, and lost 45-0.

The smaller, slower Oregon journalists battled on even terms with Aggies during most of the first quarter, and the score stood at 7-0 at the end of the

The Oregon scribes nearly scored in the second quarter, when "sleeper" Bob Robinson dashed out from behind some blocking dummies on the sidelines to carry a pass from Jerry Claussen 60 yards.

The drive ran out of gas on the Aggie 15-yard line, however, and injury and Halfback Lloyd Pow- blocking. The Duckling practice the local SDX'ers never seriously threatened again. The Oregon team completed only three passes all morning.

The two teams had scheduled a of the Oregon-Oregon State football game, Nov. 20, but members of the Oregon chapter have agreed that they won't play unless they play against Sigma Delta Chi instead of "professionindividual backfield and line Reporters: Jerry Harrell, Neil als" recruited from intramural

Sig Eps, Betas See IM Action

Sigma Phi Epsilon had an easy showed fine power and good afternoon Monday as they placements on their shots. The downed Phi Gamma Delta in vol- final scores of the sets were 15-3 leyball by a score of 15-3 and and 15-5 respectively.

The Sig Ep team, in winning two games straight, showed a Delta Tau Delta upped their fine offense and defense. The place in IM standings as they Fijis never threatened to over-

Phi Psi Wins

Phi Kappa Psi took two straight games Monday afterleyball.

The first game was nip and tuck all the way with the Phi Psi's team finally winning 15-13. The other game was very onesided with Phi Psi showing superior skill in winning 15-6.

ATO's Victors

Alpha Tau Omega took two straight volleyball games from Phi Kappa Sigma in their match Monday.

The first game started fast, but soon slowed down as the ATO team started to move out ahead. The score was 15-4. Phi Kappa Sigma, after getting off to a poor start, came back in a final effort to win the second game, titled, "Let George Do It," about but failed as the ATO team held them off and went on to win date, George Shaw, will appear in 15-12.

Phi Kap's Lose

two straight sets Monday in their reer at the University. A class game. Both of the scores The magazine is due at all were onesided as the Betas news stands starting today.

Sigs Down DU's

place in IM standings as they beat Sigma Alpha Epsilon in come the early leads of the Sig two straight sets Monday. The Delts, paced by Ron Rickets and Bud Anderson, took the games by scores of 15-9 and 15-4. In the first game, the Delts were given a little trouble by the SAE team, noon to down Sigma Nu in vol- but came through to beat them easily.

Delts Victors

Delta Upsilon proved to be a tough foe for the Sigma Chi team, but the Sig's pulled through to take their match in straight sets, 15-11 and 15-4. Sigma Chi had trouble pulling past the DU's in the first game, but after winning it, they made quick work of the second.

Shaw Article On Sale Now

full-length feature "story Oregon's All-American candithe December issue of Sport magazine.

. The story is written by Al Beta Theta Pi downed the Phi Stump and gives the highlights Sigma Kappa volleyball team in of Shaw's brilliant athletic ca-

