

'Upperclassmen' Play At Homecoming Dance

Music for the Homecoming dance will be furnished by Roger Middleton and "The Upperclassmen." The 16-piece group, mainly students, will have Katie Taylor, senior in music, as vocalist.

Middleton's band was formed this fall and has played at the Whiskerino and at the Oregon State college Homecoming. The group is composed of four trumpets, four trombones, five saxophones, and a three man rhythm section.

Arrangements for the group are from the libraries of Stan Kenton and Ray Anthony. Others have been done by Middleton, a junior in pre-law, and by Larry Myer, featured trumpeter with the band. Several new arrangements will be presented at the

SU to Celebrate Fourth Birthday

Birthday cake and coffee will be served in the fishbowl Wednesday at 4 p.m. to celebrate the fourth birthday of the University's Student Union.

Presiding at the birthday ceremonies will be Bob Pollock, SU board chairman, and Donna Schafer, directorate chairman. The program will also include Friday-at-Four-style entertainment.

This week each SU standing committee is presenting some phase of its program. Friday night's fishbowl mixer will feature the birthday theme.

Service Stations Cease Price War

Eugene's gas price war is almost over and prices should be back up to their normal level before the day is over, according to local service station owners and managers.

A number of stations have already gone back to their usual price of 31.5 cents a gallon. Most of the stations still cutting have gone up to 29.3 cents a gallon.

A few stations are still selling gas at 22.7 cents, but the station owners predict that all the price cutting will end before Tuesday night.

New York School of Law Offers $6600 Scholarships

Outstanding college seniors throughout the country are invited to apply for the $6600 Root-Tilden scholarships given by the New York university school of law.

These scholarships, designed to help develop potential leaders in public affairs, are awarded on the basis of superior academic record, potential capacity for unselfish public leadership and active participation in extra-curricular college life.

Under the terms of the grant, 20 scholarships are awarded annually on a competitive regional basis, with two scholarships given to each of the 10 federal judicial circuits. Each candidate must be at least 20 years old, but not more than 28, when his law training begins, and he must be an unmarried male citizen of the United States.

Although the award is made initially for one year, it is renewed for the second and third years when the student maintains a high standard in legal and general scholarship.

Applications for 1955 must be completed by Feb. 15.

Homecoming dance, Saturday, Nov. 13, including a vocal arrangement of "Hey There."

Middleton was a member of an Air Force dance band, "Airmen of Note," while stationed in Washington, D.C. He appeared in several scenes in the movie, "The Glenn Miller Story."

Theme for the Homecoming dance will be "Diary of Dreams." Tickets will go on sale at the Co-op and Student Union next week.

Reporters to Meet, Receive New Beats

The first general reporters meeting of the year, for all students now working on the Emerald news staff and those who want to work on the news side, will be held Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. in Allen hall.

The meeting will be held in the Emerald office, Allen 301, and will be conducted by Jerry Harrell, news editor. New beats will be assigned and students will have an opportunity to sign up for Homecoming stories and other special assignments.

Anyone interested in writing for the Emerald is urged to come, Harrell said, even if they have not previously signed up for work on the campus daily.
