

Uclans Lead PCC Figures

LOS ANGELES - (Special) - Ranking at the head of seven of 10 statistical departments, the UCLA Bruins today dominated the weekly Pacific Coast Conference football team figures released by the PCC Commissioner's office.

UCLA was the No. 1 team in rushing and total offense, punting and total defense, punt returns, interceptions and punting, while ranking second in kickoff returns. The UCLA running game has averaged 312.9 yards per game during the first seven weekends, to 207.3 for second-ranked Southern California. The Bruins total offense average is 384.4, while Oregon, which leads in passing with 184.7 yards, is second with 354.

Defensively UCLA has allowed but 81.3 yards a game rushing to 132.1 for Washington State. In total defense UCLA's average is 210.1 while Oregon is second with 220.1. The Ducks also have given up the fewest yards passing, 87.3, to 96 for Southern California.

UCLA has intercepted 22 enemy passes and has returned them 338 yards and leads in punting with a 38.1 yard average to 37.3 for Oregon State. In punt returns the Bruins have a 21.9 yard average per runback, five having gone for touchdowns. California leads in kickoff returns with a 21.1 yard average with UCLA second with a 20-yard average.

UCLA, Miami Game Banned

MIAMI, Fla.-(AP)-Athletic director Jack Harding of the University of Miami tried Tuesday to arrange a post-season game for the unbeaten Hurricanes with UCLA but found it was against the rules.

UCLA ranked first and Miami sixth in this week's Associated Press poll but neither is eligible for a bowl bid. UCLA can't go to the Rose Bowl because of the no-repeat rule. Miami can't go to any bowl because the school is under NCAA probation.

Harding called UCLA Athletic Director Wilbur Johns to suggest a game in the Orange Bowl here Dec. 3. Johns, who is chairman of the NCAA special events Committee under which the proposed game would fall, said the rules wouldn't permit it.

All games not scheduled before the season starts are "special events," Johns said.

Oregon Primes for UCLA; Powell Is Game Captain

Oregon's varsity football team worked till dark on defense Wednesday in an effort to halt the high-flying UCLA Bruins when the two PCC teams meet at the Memorial Coliseum at Los Angeles Saturday.

Defense and more defense was the order of the day as head Coach Len Casanova and his assistants Jack Roche, Vern Sterling, and John McKay ran the Duck gridgers through defensive formations designed to halt the Bruins.

Number One
 UCLA is regarded as the best team on the coast and is currently ranked number one in the country by the Associated Press. Red Sanders' team, which operates from the powerful singling, battered Cal Saturday despite 25 passes completed by the Bears' Paul Larson.

The Uclans opened the season by blasting San Diego Navy and on successive Saturdays have rolled over Kansas, Maryland ('53 national champion), Washington, Stanford, Oregon State, and then Cal. Stanford was beaten 72-0 and the Beavers succumbed 61-0.

There is a possibility that the Bruins may be pointing past Oregon toward USC. The UCLA-USC game on November 20 is figured as the game which will decide the PCC championship. The Bruins, who lost in the Rose Bowl to Michigan State this year, are ineligible, but the Trojans are sniffing roses.

Upset Minded
 In 1953 Oregon lost to UCLA by a 12-0 score when the Bruins scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. This year the Ducks should be striving even harder for an upset.

One of the bright spots in the Oregon camp lately has been the improved play of Halfback Lloyd Powell. The letterman senior, who played six-man football at Triangle Lake high school, was named game captain for the UCLA contest and will share captain's duties with Ron Pfeister, the season's captain.

Bill Hammer, the Frosh coach, scouted the Bruins against Cal Saturday and came away singing the praises of Sanders' team.

UCLA, USC Retain Lead

Oregon moved into third place in the PCC standings last Saturday, as the result of its 26-7 victory over Washington. This game broke a four year losing streak to the Washington Huskies.

The UCLA Bruins maintained its perfect record by trouncing the California Bears by a 27-6 margin. There are only five other football powers in the United States that can boast an unblemished record.

USC kept pace with UCLA by gaining a 34-0 win over a green Oregon State team. This victory was its fourth against Coast competition.

The Washington State Cougars pulled the upset of the day by scoring a narrow 30-26 win over the Stanford Indians at Palo Alto, California.

Local Yokels Set New Team Record

Hale Kane trounced Sederstrom hall 4-0 in Wednesday night bowling and thus retained their leadership in the dorm league with a 10-2 season's record.

Yeomen and French hall are tied for second in games won but the Yeomen have accounted for more total pins.

Wins and Losses
 In other Wednesday results the Yeomen split 2-2 with Campbell Club, French hall losted Gamma hall 4-0 and the Local Yokels smothered Sederstrom hall 3-1.

The Local Yokels set a house record with a 2833 gross score (net plus handicap) for the four games. The old record of 2832 was held by Theta Chi.

Boyle High
 Bob Boyle of Local Yokels rolled the high single game—243—and high series—606. Boyle also has the high league average of 177.

Standings:	W	L
Hale Kane	10	2
Yeomen	7	5
French hall	7	5
Nestor hall	6	6
Local Yokels	5	3
Gamma hall	4	8
Sederstrom	3	9

"They just looked real, real good," Hammer stated.

Run and Pass
 Hammer pointed out that the Bruins are basically a running team (leading the coast in rushing) but can pass when they want to.

"Primo Villanueva completed seven of ten passes against Cal," the Frosh coach said.

In comparing Villanueva with last year's UCLA star Paul Cameron, Hammer remarked that Villanueva was not as large as Cameron and not quite as dangerous but commented that he "had certainly helped this year's team as much as Cameron helped last year's."

Top Defenders
 Although vulnerable to the short passes of Larson, UCLA was praised as having a good pass defense, in that the Bruins covered Cal's downfield receivers fully.

In the line Hammer cited Hardiman Cureton and Jack Ellena as being the best defenders. He was not too impressed with Jim Salsbury, who along with Ellena is being touted for All-American.

The Oregon team should go into the game in the best shape of the season. Only reserve end Leroy Campbell is ailing. He has a bad back.

The Ducks—36 strong—will leave Eugene at 11 a.m. Friday and will fly to UCLA via United Airlines. They expect to arrive in Los Angeles in time for an afternoon workout on the coliseum turf.
