

PARADE STARTS AT 6:30

Noise Procession Route Announced

The Homecoming noise parade will form on University street and 19th Friday, Nov. 12, according to Dick Van Allen, parade chairman. The parade will begin at 6:30 p.m.

The parade will move on 19th to Alder, turn right on Alder to 13th, up 13th to University, up University with each float passing past the judges reviewing stand at the Student Union, left on 15th to Onyx and north on Onyx to the parking lot on Onyx and 13th streets, where the floats will be parked.

Students will proceed to the bonfire and rally by the physical plant across the Franklin boulevard.

Judges for the parade will be

Bill Bowerman, assistant director of athletics; W. A. Dahlberg, associate professor of speech, and William Laughlin, associate professor of anthropology.

Trophies will be presented at the variety show to the living organizations sponsoring the winning noise parade float. Winners of second and third place in the parade also will be announced.

Communist Art Is Topic of Meeting

Channing club will resume its discussion series this Sunday with B. E. Jessup, professor of philosophy, as guest speaker.

Jessup will speak on "The Place of the Arts in the Communist State." A discussion and refreshments will follow. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in the Unitarian church, 11th and Ferry.
