

Religious Notes

Bahai Faith

Fireside discussion groups of the Bahai Faith, a religious belief which originated in Persia 100 years ago, will be held every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at 1458 Alder. Organizer of the group is Gordon Jackson, freshman in architecture.

Canterbury Club

A guided tour of St. Mary's Episcopal church, 13th and Pearl streets, will be led by the Rev. Robert Ellis following supper and a service of evening prayer at 6 p.m.

A service of Holy Communion is held at 7 a.m. every Wednesday morning. Breakfast is served after the service so that students may get to 8 a.m. classes on time.

Wednesday evenings, an informal Bible study group is held at the home of Father Ellis, 1909 East 17th.

Canterbury Club meets at the College Side from 4 to 5 p.m. Thursday. Discussions on questions of Episcopal thought, background, practice or conviction are led by Father Ellis.

Confirmation classes are held from 8 to 10 p.m. every Thursday in the Student Union. The classes are open to candidates for confirmation and to any person already a member of the Episcopal church.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship

Inter-Varsity will hold its first social event of fall term at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in Gerlinger hall. The informal party, following the theme of "Fall Fiesta," will include games, devotionals, and refreshments.

A missionary emphasis meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Gerlinger hall.

Luther House

Theme of the party at 8 p.m. tonight at Luther House, 1376 Alder, is "Aw-Topsy." The evenings entertainment will include organized games, singing and skits. Refreshments will be served.

The Rev. Ed Svensen will talk on "The Unfinished Reformation" at 6 p.m. Sunday. Refreshments will be served and entertainment will follow the program.

Christian Science

Members of the Christian Science student organization will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday on the first floor of Gerlinger hall.

Newman Club

Sunday evening activities at Newman Club will begin with the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the Sacred Heart hospital chapel.

A short business meeting will be held with a talk on "Censorship?" by W. J. Feeny, instructor in English. Refreshments and a social hour will follow the meeting.

Christian House

A theater party will be held by Christian House tonight. Students who wish to see "A Star Is Born" will meet in front of the McDonald theater at 6:30 p.m. and sit together as a group. After-the-show refreshments at Christian House, 736 East 18th are being planned by Sonia Lander, freshman in pre-nursing and general chairman of the party.

After the Sunday morning Donut Hour at 9:15, two Bible study groups will be held. Leaders are Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business, and the Rev. John Baesinger, faculty member at Northwest Christian college.

A new Sunday evening series of discussions on "Implications of Freedom" will be opened at 5:30 p.m. this Sunday by Bernd Hans R. Volkart, political science major from Germany. Refreshments will be served following the worship and discussion periods. The fireside from 9 to 10 p.m. will be an informal sing.

Wesley Schultz of Philadelphia House has been appointed chairman of the Christian House service project for Christmas.

A potluck dinner will be held at 5:30 p.m. Thursday with Maxine Molkie, special student, in charge.

Wesley Foundation

Wesleyans will leave for a weekend at Camp Magruder this afternoon. Several Oregon colleges are participating in the meeting of the Oregon Methodist Student Movement. The Rev. Rector Johnson, of the Eugene First Methodist church, will be the speaker on the theme "Design for Life."

Sunday activities, including the Koinonia Klass, supper and the University of Life series, will be cancelled because of the retreat. A movie entitled "The Hidden Heart" will be shown Tuesday following the usual potluck supper at 5:30 p.m.

Chapel services will begin at 9:30 p.m. Thursday.

Westminster Foundation

Activities at Westminster House, 1414 Kincaid, will begin this week with a "Surprise Party" at 7:30 tonight. Refreshments will be served.

The executive council will meet Tuesday noon.

The chapel service Wednesday noon will be led by Martin Oosterkamp.

Guest speaker for the usual fellowship supper at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday will be Paul Gofdon, minister of the Seventh Day Adventist church. He will speak on "Seventh Day Adventism and Current Issues."

Westminster House is always open for students to study, visit or relax.
