

Vets Carry Swim Hopes

Oregon's varsity swimming chances this year are pinned on the hopes of four returning lettermen and six talented but untried sophomores.

The nucleus of the squad is composed of Seniors Harry Fuller and Phil Lewis, both three year lettermen, and Juniors Jerry Froebe and Yoji Matsushima, one-year men.

Veterans Place

In the Northern Division championship last year, Fuller, a distance man, placed in the 1500 meter, 220 and 440 yard free-styles, as did Lewis in the 100 and 400 yard freestyle. Froebe placed in the 440 and 400 yard free-style and Matsushima took a sixth in the 220 yard free-style.

Coach John Borchardt is relying on his untried sophomores to fill in and add depth to the squad. Bob Hays, Jean Bowles, and Phil Richter are fighting for top spots in the 100 and 200 yard breast stroke. Dave Earle has been concentrating on the 100 and 400 yard free-style, and Jim England has been working on the backstroke.

Transfer May Help

Another good prospect is Howard Hedinger, a transfer from Menlo J.C. Hedinger holds the 40 yard free-style national prep record.

One of the biggest problems, according to Borchardt, is the lack of a capable diver.

As a whole, the team lacks depth, an ever-present problem for Oregon swimming squads.

Four Fraternities Record Pin Wins

In bowling action Tuesday Delta Upsilon, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Phi Kappa Sigma and Theta Chi rolled to easy wins.

The DU's won handily from Pi Kappa Alpha by a 4-0 score.

Tau Kappa Epsilon rolled over Sigma Chi by a 3-1 margin. Pat Eaton led the winners with a high single of 180 and a high triple of 476.

Phi Kappa Sigma won 4-0 at the expense of Alpha Tau Omega, as Sam Sorenson paced the winners with a high triple of 544.

Art Weatherford led Theta Chi to another victory, this time by 3-1 over Lambda Chi Alpha.

Casanova Voted To Shrine Game Coaching Staff

Oregon Football Coach Len Casanova will be one of the assistant coaches of the West team in this year's East-West Shrine game in San Francisco.

Casanova's selection was announced Monday by the Northern California Football Writers association. The writers also selected Lynn O. (Pappy) Waldorf of California as head coach of the West squad, and Eddie Price of Texas as the other assistant coach.

Waldorf will also be assisted in an advisory capacity by Chuck Taylor of Stanford, who was head coach of the victorious West squad last year.

Waldorf was named to replace Jess Hill of USC, whose team will be playing in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day.

East coaches for the Shrine classic will be Eddie Anderson of Holy Cross, Benny Oosterban of Michigan and Bobby Dodds of Georgia Tech.

Varsity, Frosh Hold Practice

Both varsity and freshman football teams kept at the practice grid Tuesday afternoon in preparation for their respective weekend games with Washington State and the Oregon State Rooks.

Assistant Coaches Vern Sterling and Jack Roche put the Ducks through a session involving the "cup" type of pass protection and also regular line and backfield maneuvers.

The entire team participated in a dummy scrimmage and later a full-dress scrimmage with George Shaw directing the activity against the reserves.

Bill Hammer sent his Ducklings through similar drills, and ran his kickoff men and field-goal experts in their specialties, with offensive patterns occupying the remainder of the workout.

Borcher Resumes Basketball Drills

Oregon's basketball squad went into its second week of practice Monday and Tuesday as drills continued for the season's opener with Santa Clara Dec. 3.

The team split into two groups Tuesday to allow Coach Bill Borcher to give better attention to individual players. The afternoon session was attended mostly by veterans on the team while the night practice was devoted to the sophomores out for this year's Duck five.

Scrimmage Run

Borcher ran the team through its first scrimmage of the season last Friday to practice plays learned during the first week's lessons. Tuesday he began working the two groups on fast breaks from jump balls and free throw rebounds, while continuing to emphasize tip-ins to the big men and control of the boards in general.

A prospective all-veteran first team is beginning to shape up as a result of drills held so far, in which Borcher has continually tested his sophomores in hopes of finding outstanding first-year men to round out the varsity.

Varsity Works

A team composed of Jim Loscutoff, Max Anderson, Ray Bell, Howard Page and Jerry Ross, all former Duck lettermen, has worked together consistently.

Meanwhile, Freshman Coach Don Kirsch has also been working his squad of more than 20 ex-high school cagers to get them acquainted with the Oregon fast-break and screen system. Since the Frosh are limited to a season of 10 games by Coast conference rules, their season will not begin until January 10, when they play the preliminary game to the Oregon-WSC game here.

Sig Eps Record Volleyball Win

Sigma Phi Epsilon took another volleyball victory Tuesday afternoon as they defeated Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 15-5 and 15-8.

The first game was all Sig Ep, as they ran up ten points before SAE even threatened to score. The second game was a tight affair, with the Sig Eps leading only 8-7 until they put on their final game clinching rally.

Delts Triumph

Delta Tau Delta continued its winning ways in intramural volleyball action yesterday with easy 15-6 and 15-3 wins over Pi Kappa Phi.

The Delts were never pressed as they used good teamwork to defeat the Pi Kaps.

Betas Take Forfeit

Pi Kappa Alpha again failed to show up for their volleyball game as they forfeited to Beta Theta Pi.
