Entertainment Includes Solos, Impersonations

Ten students will perform at today's Friday at Four in the Student Union Fishbowl according to Lucia Knepper, chairman of the music committee.

A can-can will be given by Betsy Morphet, Judy Duffy, Skip Shearer, and Helen Eastman, all freshmen in liberal arts.

Playing the piano will be Sue Horn, sophomore in music; Impersonations will be given by Sharon Beard, freshman in liberal arts.

Pat Viles, junior in general sciences, will play the guitar. A trio composed of Gary Alden, sophomore in economics; Ben Kahalekuly, sophomore in business, and Bill Veatch, sophomore in music, will also entertain. The master of ceremonies will be Tom Waidrop, freshman in speech.

Barbershop Rules Changed by Board

Two regulations concerning the Barbershop quartet contest to be held during Dad's weekend were changed at the Student Union board meeting Wednesday.

The previous rule on participation that only male students may participate in the contest was changed to read "Only male students and faculty members may participate in the contest."

A change in awards was also made. Previously an award had been given to the first place winner with recognition to second and third place winners. The board decided to give an award to the first place winner and recognition to as many others as the judges deem appropriate.

The possibility of sponsoring a dinner dance was advanced by Don Peck, SU dance chairman. The function would include a dinner, followed by dancing in the SU ballroom. Admission tickets would be sold. The SU public relations committee will ask students for their opinions of the suggestion.

Brando, Quinn Featured In SU Sunday Movie

Marlon Brando stars in the Sunday movie at the Student Union, "Viva Zapata!" Jean Peters and Anthony Quinn are also featured in the movie, which is a historical drama of Old Mexico.

The movie, which will be shown in the SU ballroom, will start at 2:30 and 5 p.m., with admission 30 cents.

SU Music Committee Conducts Talent Survey

A freshman talent survey is being conducted by the Student Union music committee, according to Lucia Knepper, chairman.

The purpose of the survey is to urge freshmen to participate in talent shows and variety programs. Forms are being distributed by counselors and social chairmen of the freshman dorms and all living organizations.

SUCCESS STORY FOR TWO... and how it started

Joanne Dru started her career as a model of teen-ager clothes. But it was her 6-year study of dancing that won her a part in a Broadway musical... which led to film stardom in Hollywood.

There she met John Ireland, ex-marathon swimmer, amateur actor, stock player, Broadway star—now a brilliant director. Today they are man-and-wife partners in sparkling new screen hits.
