Ann Erickson Named '54 Homecoming Queen

Ann Erickson was crowned 1954 Homecoming queen at the variety show given in her honor Friday night in McArthur court. Queen Ann was crowned by University President O. Meredith Wilson.

The blonde, green-eyed queen will reign over all Homecoming activities today. She and her court will be introduced at the Washington state college-Oregon football game this afternoon and the Homecoming dance tonight at 9 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom.

Queen Ann was the candidate of the freshman men's dorms, Kappa Kappa Gamma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

A graduate of Eugene high school, Ann wants to teach history or social problems in a Eugene area high school after graduation from the University. She is a junior in general social science. Both her parents are Oregon graduates.

Sewing, reading and swimming are listed as her favorite hobbies. She is centennial chairman of the YWCA and is a member of the Co-op board. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic honorary and the YWCA cabinet.

All-campus voting for the Homecoming Queen was held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in the Student Union and the Co-op. The members of Queen Ann's court are Patty Fagan, Audrey Mistretta, Lois Powell and Mary Jane Rud.
