'Top' Dorm Living Planned in Earl

By Kathleen Morrison
Emerald Feature Writer

"The latest and best in dormitory living" will be available to Oregon men students with the opening of the new Virgil D. Earl hall next September, according to H. P. Barnhart, director of dormitories.

The new $1,250,000 structure, now under construction on campus, will be Oregon's first permanent men's dormitory erected since John Straub hall was built in 1929. It is named for Virgil D. Earl, former dean of men at Oregon.

The new four-story dorm, an addition to Straub hall, is really five separate buildings connected only on the ground floor. Each of the five units will have its own dining room and lounge with a recreation room in the basement. The dorm's kitchen will be joined to the present kitchen in Straub hall.

Building to House 328

The building will house 328 men. A housemother's apartment will be located in the center unit.

Oppenheimer Has ACCF Bid

NEW YORK-(AP)-Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, barré from the nation's atomic secrets, has been elected to membership in the American Committee for Cultural Freedom, an avowed anti-Communist group.

The committee announced Thursday that Oppenheimer agreed to accept membership from his home in Princeton, N.J., where he is director of the Institute for Advanced Study.

The ACCF describes itself as an organization of 300 artists, scholars, scientists and writers "dedicated to a responsible struggle against Communism and all other forms of totalitarianism."

Last June, by a 4-1 vote, the Atomic Energy Commission denied Oppenheimer further access to atomic data. The chief complaint was "his persistent and continuing association with Communists."

UT Casts Tonight For Coming Drama With New Director

Tryout for "Captive at Large," the University theater's third production of the season, will be held tonight at 8 p.m. in 102 Villard.

Daniel Drempe, who joined the UT staff as director, designer this fall, will direct the play. All students are invited to attend tryouts. Copies of the play are available in the speech office in Villard hall.

"Captive at Large" is an experimental drama, and this will be its first production anywhere. Opening date of the play will be January 29.

Additional tryouts have been scheduled for 4 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Tuesday and at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, in 102 Villard.

Dutch Modern Art Lecturer To Present Van Gogh Art

Dr. Jacob B. De La Faille, member-correspondent of the committee of the Royal Museums of Fine Arts in Belgium, and has been decorated with such honors as: Knight of the "Legion of Honor," Knight of the "Order of Leopold II of Belgium," and others.

A well-known authority on Vincent van Gogh, Dr. De La Faille has published numerous essays on fine arts in reviews and periodicals, lectured extensively in most European countries and four times in the United States, and is an organizer of exhibitions. He has also founded two small museums in memory of Vincent van Gogh in the south of France.

Dr. De La Faille, who was born in Leeuwarden, Holland, received his law degree at Utrecht university in 1913. Since then he has served as Cultural Attache for Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia,
