

Feminine Fancies... are found on the Women's Page, page two of today's Emerald.

Signs, Torches to Rise In Pre-Civil War Rally

The rally board has requested campus living organizations to take signs and torches to the pre-Oregon State game rally Friday night at the Student Union.

Picture Sales Close Today

Members of Theta Chi and Campbell club will have their pictures taken for the Oregon today from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Kennell-Ellis photographers.

Houses will not be paired for the rally, according to Sam Vahey, rally board publicity chairman.

Vahey also said that students should dress in clothing suitable to the "Aggie" game—levis or overalls.

Voice Major Plans Recital

Audrey Mistretta, contralto, will present a concert Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the music auditorium.

Slides Illustrate Changing Styles In Architecture

Oregon architecture during the latter 19th century was influenced by changing styles, M. D. Ross, associate professor of architecture told the browsing room audience last night.

Ross illustrated his lecture with colored slides of Oregon homes, churches, public buildings and stores, some of which are still standing.

SU Vacancies Listed by Board

Two positions are vacant on the Student Union board, assistant chairman Andy Berwick announced at Wednesday's board meeting.

The vacancies are in the school of art and the graduate school. The grad school vacancy has not been filled this year.

by President O. Meredith Wilson. The new members are expected to be confirmed in time for the next meeting.

The physical education school position is not vacant as was previously announced.

In other business, the board approved establishment of a subcommittee to act as an adviser to the SU director on building policy.

Wilson to Speak At Joint Meeting

University President O. Meredith Wilson will be the featured speaker at the annual joint meeting of the Oregon Mothers and Dads of the Portland area today.

Members of this committee would include the SU board chairman, the assistant chairman, one board member to be selected by the chairman, two appointive faculty members and the SU director and the director of the student affairs as ex-officio members.

Final approval of the formation of such a committee must come from the University president before action can be taken.

Men will wear white shirts, dark ties, and dark blue suit coats. Pin striped suits will not be acceptable, according to John Shaffer, photography editor.

No makeups will be scheduled without a good excuse, according to Shaffer. Pictures can only be rescheduled through him.

Her concert is sponsored by the music school and is one of a series of student-faculty recitals presented throughout the year.

Jacobson to Speak At Teachers' Club

The university chapter of Future Teachers of America will hold its first meeting today at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union.

Sororities Pledge 4 in Open Rushing

Most recent pledges during women's fall term open rush include Arlene Hardt, Delta Gamma; Betty Poage, Delores Smith and Pat Bush, Alpha Gamma Delta.

The meeting will be held at the Portland Women's club. Karl Onthank, associate director of student affairs, and Leo Harris, director of athletics, will also represent the University at this meeting.

Onthank will speak on opportunities for scholarships and Harris will discuss the athletic program.

Making arrangements for this meeting are Hugh Barzee, president of the Portland area Dads, and Mrs. Ward Cook, president of the Portland area Mothers club.

All Seats Reserved For Saturday Tilt

All seats for Saturday's Oregon State college-Oregon game at Corvallis are reserved. Students who wish to sit together at the game should buy their tickets at the same time.

Tickets are $2. Approximately 500 are left. A number of $4 tickets for regular reserved seats are also available.

YW Sophomores Schedule Fireside

Another in the series of firesides sponsored by the sophomore cabinet of the YWCA will be held at Delta Gamma Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.

All sophomore women on campus are welcome to attend, according to Mary Sandeberg, publicity chairman of the sophomore group.

After 17 years in the United States, the club is now comprised of 528 college chapters and 1797 high school chapters.

Lungreen Suspended For Shotgun Incident

Rolf P. Lungreen, freshman in liberal arts, has been indefinitely suspended from the University following an incident involving the discharge of a shotgun loaded with blanks Friday night in Gamma hall.

returned from the noise parade Friday night and entered Brandt's room. He still had two blanks in his .410 shotgun.

Bradford Blaine, counselor for men, said that Lungreen was suspended, "because he violated a University regulation against firearms and because his action was deemed irresponsible and unbecoming to a student of the University."

Birger Brandt, sophomore in pre-med, received burns in his

"The gun was pointed away from Brandt," Lungreen said. "But just as the gun went off, Brandt turned around and the blast caught him in the arms."

Blaine said that there is no precedent on record for the handling of such a case. The firearms rule has not, to his knowledge, been used before.

Constance, Carlson Attend Annual Meeting in Arizona

The problems of registration procedures and record keeping were two of the main topics of discussion at the 28th annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers.

Attending the conference from the University of Oregon were Clifford Constance, registrar, and J. Spencer Carlson, director of admissions.

Explosives Users May Be Suspended

"Anyone who discharges a weapon or ignites or sets off any inflammable or explosive material, including firecrackers in or around a dormitory or any other University building is subject to suspension from the University."

Above is the rule governing firearms and other explosive materials, according to Bradford Blaine, counselor for men.

SU Friday at Four To Feature Music

This week's Friday at Four in the Student Union fishbowl will consist of four musical performances.

Popular songs will be sung by both Chick Nichols, sophomore in music, and Rita Yuzon, senior in mathematics.

Nearly 150 delegates attended the conference representing most of the institutions of higher learning from the states of Washington, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, California, Arizona, Utah, and British Columbia.

Constance led a workshop at the conference on the subject of foreign students and was also a member of the nominating committee for the convention.

Blaine also stated that the office of student affairs will act accordingly in any case regarding firearms referred to it by a housemother, dormitory counselor, dormitory officer or any other witness or involved person.

Greig's Concerto will be played on the piano by Rob Roy, freshman in music.

This week's Friday at Four has been organized by Bob Porter, junior in political science.

Persons attending the conference were told that the forecast of higher enrollments in the coming years will create problems of record keeping and registration.

right forearm and left arm from the discharge of the weapon. He was treated at the University infirmary that evening.

Describing the incident, Lungreen said Sunday that he had

Blaine said that the University's suspension policy provides that when a student has proven that his conduct will be above reproach on his return, he may return to school.

Length of suspension is usually proportionate to the case in question, and may vary in length from one year to an indefinite suspension such as Lungreen's.

No suspended student, however, is allowed to return to the University during the same term in which he is suspended.

Women Writers To Submit Works

Campus women interested in Chi Delta Phi, national women's literary honorary, are encouraged to submit manuscripts to the Student Union browsing room before Dec. 15.

All forms of creative writing, such as poetry and short stories, will be acceptable. Promotion of higher writing ideals, discussions of member's works and guest speakers highlight campus activities of the group.

Recently elected officers of the group are Valerie Cowsls Gavig, president; Linda Shumaker, vice-president; Jean Smith, treasurer; Rita Kenyon, secretary; Dixie Miller, historian, and Sally Cummins, publicity chairman.

Graduate Scholarships Offered by Stanford

The Stanford university institute for journalistic studies is offering graduate scholarships in journalism for the 1955-56 academic year.

The awards range from $750 to $2000 and total $10,100. Scholarship applications must be in not later than January 15, 1955.

Additional information may be obtained from: Director, Institute for Journalistic Studies, Stanford University, Stanford, California.