

CAMPUS.....merry-go-round

At Alpha Phi

Most recent pinning at the Alpha Phi house is that of Sylvia Wingard to Dick Bemis, law school student. Before transferring from Lewis and Clark college, Dick was affiliated with Delta Tau Rho.

At Alpha Xi Delta

The local chapter of Alpha Xi Delta recently received national recognition by winning one of the two Friendship awards given each year to outstanding Alpha Xi Delta chapters. The award is based on service to the Alma Mater, loyalty to the fraternity, and strength of the chapter spirit. Several pinnings have also been announced by the Alpha Xi's. They include Marta Gosnell to David Turnbull, of Teller, Oregon; Lucy Sprouse to C. Barr Fletcher, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Sylvia Sommerer to Bob Ransom, Phi Kappa Sigma.

At Chi Omega

Lorraine Ray announced her pinning to Gary McManus last weekend. Lorraine is a Chi O pledge and Gary, a member of Theta Chi.

At Delta Gamma

Of romantic interest at the Delta Gamma house was the announcement of the pinnings of JoAnn Kerr to Norman Weekly, Beta Theta Pi, and Sue Smyth to Bob Reid, Sigma Chi. Sue was honored by a Sigma Chi serenade last Saturday night.

At Gamma Phi Beta

November 9 was a memorable night for the Gamma Phi's, as two surprise engagement parties were given. After dinner Norma Crowley announced her engagement to Dan Reynolds, Delta Upsilon, and after closing hours Mary Sandberg announced her engagement to Mac Moorad, US Army and currently stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington.

At Highland House

Two marriages and two engagements have taken place at the Highland House during the summer and fall. Maxine Burt married Donald Kyte, and Jane Gardner married John Grew.

Neelie Sano announced her engagement to Charles Schultz, Phi Sigma Kappa, and Ida Coston, to Richard Hankins.

At Kappa Alpha Theta

The engagement of Donna Organ and Harry Donkers, Theta Chi, was revealed at a surprise party after closing hours Saturday at the Theta house. Harry graduated from Oregon last year and is presently living in Long Beach, California. An early fall wedding is planned by the couple.

At Kappa Kappa Gamma

Four Kappas became pinned in the last few weeks. Joanne Gerber is wearing the pin of Tim Brooks, a Phi Delt at the University of Washington and formerly of Stanford. Judith Pierce is pinned to Mike Smith, SAE, and Dee Dee Todd, to George Schuler, a graduate of USC and also a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Peggy Gathercoal, a transfer from Oregon State, is pinned to Don Poling, Sigma Phi Epsilon at Oregon State.

Kwamas Selling Children's Games

Party games and children's games are now being sold by Kwama. These games will make excellent Christmas presents, according to Helen Ruth Johnson, president.

The games, which consist of a game for all ages, "Blockhead" and several picture puzzles for children are priced at one dollar each. The money received from the sale will be used for Kwama scholarships. Last year 10 scholarships of $100 each were given to freshman women.

Anyone interested in purchasing a game may contact any Kwama member or Helen Ruth Johnson at Chi Omega.

AWS Holiday Tea Petitions Due Now

Petitions are due today for the chairmanships of the AWS-sponsored Christmas tea scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 4, Margaret Tyler, AWS adviser for the event, has announced.

Besides the general chairman, a secretary, collection co-chairmen, refreshments, entertainment, and invitations chairmen are needed for the annual tea. Petitions may be turned in to Miss Tyler at Alpha Phi or in the ASUO box on the third floor, Student Union.

Junior Panhellenic Group to Organize

Sorority pledge class presidents will meet Friday noon in the Student Union to organize this year's Junior Panhellenic, according to Nita Hamilton, Panhellenic second vice-president and adviser to the junior group.

Meeting with the 16 women will be Golda Wickham, associate director of student affairs, Olivia Tharaldson, last year's Junior Panhellenic president, and Miss Hamilton.

Working to unite the pledge classes by discussion of common problems throughout the year, this group acquaints the pledges with campus and sorority standards and with the Panhellenic organization.
