

Bruins Grab Team Honors

LOS ANGELES-(Special)-UCLA has virtually clinched team honors in four statistical departments and has the lead in four others, it was disclosed this week by weekly football figures from the Pacific Coast conference commissioner's office.

With only one weekend of conference competition remaining, the UCLA team has a commanding margin over its eight rivals in rushing offense, rushing defense, total defense and punt returns and also leads in total offense, pass interceptions, punting and kickoff returns. Only California in pass offense and Oregon in pass defense were able to break the stranglehold on the PCC's 10 statistical departments.

UCLA's running game has averaged 307.2 yards a game to 223.6 yards for second-ranked Southern California while its total offense mark is 379.9 to USC's 341.1. California has averaged 174.9 yards passing and Oregon 164.

Defensively UCLA has allowed opponents only 81.1 yards a game rushing, to 152.4 for Oregon, and 200 yards a game total offense, with Oregon again second at 238.9. Oregon has allowed the fewest yards passing, 86.4, with California second, 98.8.

UCLA leads in team punting with an average of 38.8 yards per punt and in pass interceptions with 23 and a return of 338 yards. The Bruins have the best punt return mark of 19.3 yards per runback and top the kickoff returns with a 20.6 yard mark.

Washington Duel Seen as Sidelight

PULLMAN, Wash. - (AP) - A Washington vs. Washington duel emerged Wednesday as a possibly complicating sidelight of the Washington-Washington State college football game here Saturday.

Duke Washington, Washington State fullback and one of the West's leading ground-gainers before he was injured two weeks ago, was in top shape in a practice session and Coach Al Kircher indicated Washington Duke will be a key man in the lineup against Washington, the Huskies, Saturday.

Kircher ran the Cougars through a long scrimmage in rain and mud.

THIS IS NO FUN, THE LITTLE DUCK THOUGHT,

as he looked up from his book on advanced theories of analytical bird watching. I should be in Corvallis watching us beat the Aggies. So the little duck jumped in his car and followed the monster rally to the agricultural school.

After the game the little duck wanted to celebrate, but he was afraid to stay in Corvallis—and besides he didn't want to. Because the best place he could think of to go to celebrate was Rod Taylor's on the Glenwood strip in Eugene.

So he climbed back into his '29 sedan and all the way back to Eugene he thought about the good time he'd have at Rod's on the Glenwood Strip where he'd meet all the other little ducks and talk about serious subjects like women and football and, well, serious subjects.

Meeting Planned By Harvard Alums

Two graduates of Harvard university will speak to prospective undergraduate and graduate students following a movie on Harvard at Plymouth house of the Congregational church Monday at 8 p.m.

The meeting will be conducted by Charles O. Porter, Eugene attorney and recently candidate for U.S. representative from Oregon's fourth congressional district, and Douglas R. Spencer.

Sponsored annually by the local alumni of Harvard the meeting is for University students who are considering graduate work at Harvard. High school seniors who plan to enter the institution as undergraduates next fall are also invited.

Further information about the meeting may be obtained by calling Porter at 3-3524 or Spencer at 5-4371.
