

Quartets to Make Entries by Friday

Friday, Dec. 3, has been set as the deadline for all men's living organizations to submit entry blanks for the barbershop quartet contest to be held on Dad's weekend, Feb. 4 and 5.

The entry blanks were recently distributed by the Student Union music committee, sponsor of the event.

Co-chairmen of the event, Sally Jo Greig and Bob Porter, have announced that, in addition to the campus singing groups, a professional quartet will be featured.

Song selections will be accepted by the music committee until Dec. 17, with qualifying auditions to be held in the SU Jan. 25.

Male faculty members, as well as male students, may participate in a quartet. No fraternity, sorority or hall songs, or any sort of musical accompaniment will be permitted.

Quartets must dress appropriately for the occasion and sing the same two selections at the actual contest as at the auditions.

Basis for the judging of song groups has been announced to be: tonal quality, 20 per cent; perfection of performance, 20 per cent; blend, 20 per cent; originality, 20 per cent; stage appearance, 10 per cent, and stage presence, 10 per cent.

Recreation Man To Speak Here

Jay B. Nash, dean of Brigham Young university's college of recreation, physical education, health and athletics, will speak next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom.

"Can America Be Trusted With Leisure?" will be the topic of the University lecture.

Nash came to Brigham Young this fall from New York university's school of education.

A graduate of Oberlin college, Nash received his Ph.D. degree from New York university in 1929. In 1933, Springfield college conferred upon him the honorary degree of master of science. He has been a full professor since 1928.

Nash has worked on several committees on community service problems. He was chairman of one such committee under President Franklin D. Roosevelt during the mid-1930's. He also conducted the first world seminar on physical education, health, recreation and youth work in Helsinki in 1952.

Today Marks Deadline To Reschedule Photos

Today will be the last day that Oregana picture appointments will be rescheduled.

Graduating seniors who do not live in houses, students wishing make-up pictures and members of legal fraternities should stop at the Oregana office between 4 and 5 p.m. today to make appointments.

Students living off campus who do not belong to a living organization should also come to the yearbook's office to discuss the possibility of having their pictures in the book.

Students Complete Sophomore Honors

Six students have completed the sophomore honors program, bringing the total number of students who have completed the program to 20. Fourteen passed the exams last year.

Those passing the tests given in October were Anne Hill, Peter Plumridge, Judith Tucker, Gerald Jones, Sonia Edwards and Pat McCormick. These six had passed three of the four exams previously.

Other students who took one of the October exams and passed were Barbara Nyberg and Charlsie Parker.

The sophomore honors program was started two years ago and includes courses in literature, physical or biological science, society and history. The top 20 percent of the entering freshmen class may take these courses.
