

Religious Notes

Westminster Foundation

A "Hanging of the Greens" party will begin at 7:30 this evening at Westminster Foundation, 1414 Kincaid. Students will make decorations and there will be games, carols and refreshments. The trimming of the tree will be held after the basketball game.

Sunday morning activities will include a coffee hour at 9 a.m. and Bible study at 9:30. Students will go to various churches for regular Sunday morning services.

A vesper service at 6 p.m. Sunday will be followed by a coffee hour at 7 p.m.

A student panel will discuss "Christian Responsibility in World Affairs" Wednesday evening at Westminster. The program will follow the regular potluck supper at 5:30 p.m.

Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. chapel service will be held at Westminster. Students may bring sack lunches and eat at the Foundation before the service.

Canterbury Club

A discussion meeting will be held by Canterbury Club Sunday at St. Mary's Episcopal church, 13th and Pearl streets. It will follow a dessert and evening prayer service at 6:30 p.m.

Holy Communion is held at 7 a.m. every Wednesday and an informal Bible study group meets every Wednesday evening at the home of the Rev. Robert Ellis, 1909 E. 17th.

Confirmation classes are held from 8 to 10 p.m. every Thursday in the Student Union.

Canterbury club meets at the College Side from 4 to 5 p.m. every Thursday to discuss questions of Episcopal thought, background, practice or conviction. The discussions are led by Father Ellis.

Luther House

Sunday evening activities at Luther House, 1376 Alder, will begin at 7 p.m. with a guest speaker. After the evening meeting, students will participate in a choral program at Bethesda Lutheran church. Students who wish to sing in the Lutheran Student House choir should call Luther House, 4-7373.

Students will put up and decorate the Christmas tree at Luther House at 7 p.m. Tuesday. Refreshments will be served after the tree is decorated.

The LSH basketball team opened its season Thursday with a game against the Bible Standard Institute. The team will play the Church of God team at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Anyone interested in playing on the team should call Gary Peterson, athletic chairman.

A Christmas caroling party will be held at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 11. Games and refreshments will be furnished by Luther House after the caroling.

Wesley Foundation

After tonight's basketball game at McArthur court, Wesley Foundation will play host to the Wesley group from Oregon State college at an informal open house.

Sunday the Koinonia Klass will continue to meet at Wesley, 1236 Kincaid. The class begins at 9:30 a.m.

A Christmas banquet will be held at 6 p.m. Sunday. The program will include a play, "The Captains and the Kings," a presentation by the Wesley choir and group singing of Christmas carols.

A movie, "I Beheld His Glory," will be shown Tuesday evening at Wesley. The color movie which explains the life of Jesus as told by Cornelius the Centurion, will follow the usual potluck supper at 5:30 p.m.

Choir practice will be held at 6 p.m. Thursday. Chapel will be at 9:30 p.m.

Wesley will hold its annual work day Saturday. During the day money is raised to help pay expenses for the group's foreign student.

Christian House

An informal open house is scheduled after the basketball game tonight at Christian House, 736 E. 13th, with Dorothy Allen in charge.

Saturday will be the day for the annual hanging of the greens and decorating the Christmas tree. Co-chairmen are Dick Fishback and John Ihle.

Sunday morning the Donut Hour is at 9:15 and is followed by two classes studying different phases of the book of "Galatians." One group is led by Victor P. Morris, dean of the business school, the other by the Rev. John Boosinger, Northwest Christian college professor.

At 5:30 p.m. Sunday a student panel on "How We Can Bring About Peace on Earth" will be held. Jean Miller will be moderator. Among the participants will be Chandar Joshi, student from India. At 9 p.m. Christian House will be host to an area "Christmas Sing."

During the week students will be making Christmas swags. Wesley Shultz is chairman of the project. Proceeds will be used for the service projects of Christian House.

Christian Science

The campus student organization of the Christian Science church will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday on the first floor of Gerlinger hall.

Sarton to Give Three Lectures Next Week

George Sarton, internationally-known authority on the history and philosophy of science, will deliver three lectures on the campus Monday, Tuesday and Thursday of next week.

Sarton, who is sponsored by the Failing Distinguished Lecture committee, will speak at 8 p.m. each of the three nights. The title of Monday night's talk is "Euclid." On the following evening he will discuss "Medieval Science," with emphasis on Arabic writings.

His final lecture on the campus Thursday night will be on "Leonardo De Vinci."

The 70-year-old Harvard faculty member has written more than a dozen books ranging from histories of science and mathematics to Asiatic art and Arabic culture. Among his better-known works is an "Introduction to the History of Science."

Sarton was born and educated in Ghent, Belgium and came to the United States in 1915. He was decorated with the Knight Order of Leopold of Belgium in 1940 and has been president of the International Union of history of Science since 1950.

Foreign Students Attend AAUW Tea

"Christmas in the American Home" will be the theme of the annual American Association of University Women tea for foreign students at Gerlinger hall Sunday, according to Mrs. William C. Jones, president of the local chapter of AAUW.

The University Singers, under the direction of M. D. Risinger, assistant professor of music, will present a program of Christmas music at 4 p.m.

All foreign students on campus have received invitations to the tea, which will be from 3 to 5 p.m.
