

Ducks Trip Portland; Nab Second Straight

Oregon's fast and furious Ducks raced to a heart-stopping 82-78 basketball triumph over the Portland Pilots at Portland Wednesday night. Max Anderson of Oregon tied Dick "the Cat" Bartel of the Pilots for scoring honors with 23 points.

Both teams battled back and forth at a breakneck pace, with the lead changing hands on almost every goal. The half time count was 36-36 and from the start of the second half both fives scored at an ever increasing tempo.

The Pilots led as late as 72-69 but Oregon rallied to close the gap and win the game. Jim Loscutoff and Anderson, Oregon's "big" men, led the second half drive by the Ducks, Loscutoff potting 16 of his 22 points and Anderson collecting 13 of his 23 in the final 20 minutes.

Loscutoff was superb on the boards, on tip ins, and on jump shots from the key. Anderson rebounded well and was deadly on long one-handed set shots.

The Pilots held their 72-69 edge with six minutes left. Jerry Ross hit a jumper for Oregon. Anderson made a foul shot, and

Webfoot Juniors Swamp Sailors

Oregon's Junior Varsity, starting a team with both speed and height, ran roughshod over Tongue Point Naval station, winning 89-41 in the Tuesday night preliminary at McArthur court. JV Coach Barney Holland let his boys score at will, with almost no resistance from the Navy five.

The Junior Ducks opened fast and their lead was never challenged after they passed the midway point in the first period. At the end of the first half, the JV's had a 41-28 margin over the Navy, and in the second half, they continued to widen the gap.

Guard Johnny Lundell was high point man for the Ducks with a total of 18 points. Berge Borrevik and Rich Costi both ran a close second with 16 counters apiece. Carlos Murphy and Bob Norman of Navy tied for their team honors as they scored 12 points each.

Loscutoff tipped in the rebound as Max missed his second free try. When Anderson scored from the field, the Ducks held a 76-72 margin.

Ron Marshall, who chipped in with 20 points for Portland, canned two free throws, but Phil McHugh came back with a singleton for Oregon and Loscutoff rammed home another tip in.

With the score 79-74, Anderson fouled out, and Bob Altenhofen, pilot center, sank two free throws. Marshall then scored off the fast break for a 79-78 count.

McHugh flipped in a free throw for a two point lead and wrapped up the game with :15 left when he canned two gift tosses on Altenhofen's fifth personal.

Barney Holland's JV team edged the Portland freshmen 72-65 in the preliminary.

Hoopsters Slate Midwest Tour

Oregon's inexperienced basketball team will run into stiff opposition when they make a trip to the midwest to play Louisville, Dayton and Detroit after the final week.

The Duck cagers will leave immediately following tests next week and go to Louisville, Ky., where they play the Louisville university Cardinals Dec. 20. The next two nights they go to Dayton, Ohio, and Detroit, Mich., to tangle with Dayton's Flyers and Detroit university Titans.

All three of the midwest clubs are strong this season. Dayton has been picked seventh in the AP pre-season ratings. Louisville is ranked as a strong southern independent and Detroit is rated high in the Missouri Valley conference.

Oregon will be playing all three of the teams for the first time in history and will be underdogs against them. All three are unbeaten so far with offensive averages around the 90 points-per-game mark. Louisville scored 105 points in their opener and Detroit holds a 91-60 win over Bowling Green.
