

Advertising Group Initiates Students

Eleven new members were initiated by Alpha Delta Sigma, professional advertising fraternity, last weekend.

They are: Dick Koe, senior in journalism; Jack Dugan, junior in liberal arts; Phil Dixon, junior in journalism; Charles Hunt, junior in Business; Don Brown, junior in liberal arts; Harry Lester, sophomore in liberal arts; Veral Peterson, graduate in business; Dick Coleman, senior in business; Trenton Huls, senior in business; Bull Curnow, junior in business, and Paul Hales, senior in business.

Dick Coleman and Harry Lester were awarded checks by Alpha Delta Sigma President John Cary for originality and art work in sandwich advertising boards.

Westminster Members To Attend Conference

Several University members of Westminster Foundation will attend a joint conference of foundations of Oregon and Washington during the Christmas holidays.

The conference will be held in Corbett, Oregon, Dec. 28 through 31.

Campus Briefs

• Deseret club will hold its last social program of the term this evening at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Karen Rasmussen, 1959 Jefferson street.

• Eleven patients were confined to the infirmary Wednesday for medical attention, according to hospital records. They were: Judith Carlson, Ellen Chamness, Barbara Wilcox, Alice Shaw, Geraldine Kinkade, Bonnie Finchum, Evelyn Gosnell, Rex Hoover and Kenneth Brookshire.

• The YMCA-sponsored "ride pool" for vacations is now being organized, according to Dick Allen, secretary. Interested students, with or without transportation, are urged to contact the YMCA office, ext. 429.

• Alpha hall and Hale Kane hall will be open during the Christmas vacation for the convenience of present men's dormitory occupants. The charge for room will be $7.50 and no meals will be served. Further information may be obtained from dormitory counselors.
