Frosh Wrestlers Drop Vancouver

Oregon's freshman wrestling team defeated Vancouver high school 30-5 at McArthur Court Wednesday night. This was the first meet for Coach Bill Hammer's Frosh, who looked impressive after only a week of practice.

Ray Green of Oregon pinned Dave Burkee of Vancouver in 1:19 of the first period of the first match to gain an early 5-0 lead for the Frosh. Green later pinned Leonard Lynch of Vancouver in an exhibition match in 2:49 seconds of the first period to score two quick victories for Oregon.

Vancouver won its only match of the evening in the 127-pound class. Ken Kellogg used some fast maneuvering to gain a fall over Jack Cooke in 1:14 of the third period. This win tied the score at 5-5 after the first two matches. Vancouver failed to win any of the remaining matches in the other seven weight classes.

The closest match of the evening was in the 133-pound division.

Jim Theiring scored a 3-1 victory over wiry Dave Welch of Vancouver. After a scoreless first period with neither wrestler gaining the advantage, Theiring came back in the second round to gain an escape and a 1-0 lead. Welch scored an escape at the start of the third period, but Theiring came back with 20 seconds to go in the match to gain an advantage and win the match.

Ducks Drop Pioneers In First Mat Contest

Oregon's varsity wrestlers turned in their first victory of the mat season as they pinned down the Lewis and Clark Pioneers by a score of 20-11.

Key wins by Roy Schlessler, Dave Newland and Roland Wilson helped turn the tide against Lewis and Clark.

In the first match Schlessler, a transfer from Portland State, needed only 1:05 of the first round to pin his opponent, Bob Walker.

Max Weber and Darrell Klampe of Oregon fought to a draw in the second match. Klampe took an early lead in his match 1-0 when he escaped from a down position; however, Weber managed to escape from his position for 1 point and a draw.

In the 137-lb. class Butch Benner of Lewis and Clark took an early lead in the match when he slammed Oregon's Bob Williams to the mat; Williams overcame the deficit and rallied to a 4-2 decision.

Duck crowd pleaser Dave Newland recorded an easy triumph in the 147-lb. class, he threw his opponent Tex Cowart to the mat in the early minutes of the first round. Cowart had to forfeit, dislocating his leg trying to escape.

Webfoot Roland Wilson started out in good form as he picked up his opponent, Jim Wiley, in an airplane spin and threw him to the mat for a fall in 1:42 of the first round.

In the 167-lb. class Howard

Eyerly of the Pioneers turned in three points for his team when he decisioned Jack Hendrickson 6-5.

LC Man Tops Kesey

The uncanny balance of Ralph Staley, LC's standout 177-pounder, proved too much for Ken Kesey of the Ducks.

Although Kesey managed to catch Staley in a few holds, Staley eased out.

In the final match Harry McAdams of the Pioneers decisioned Dave Lowe of the Webfoots by a score of 4-1, although Lowe led early in the match 1-0.

Strength in the lighter weights proved to be the keynote for the Ducks for the Pioneers took the last three matches in the heavier weights.

UO Performer Tops Scoring

Jim Loscutoff's 51 points in two games against Washington State Monday and Tuesday nights shot him into the scoring average lead for Northern Division play this season.

The big Oregon forward's 25-point and 26-point nights against the Cougars pushed him past Washington Center Dean Parsons in points-per-game with a 21.3 average in four contests against Parsons' 19.5 mark in the Huskies' two games.

Loscutoff's 85 points is second only to WSC ace Ron Bennink's 92 counters for conference play but the Cougar forward's total has been compiled in six games for a 15.3 average. Webfoot Guard Howard Page is the only other Oregon player in the league's top ten with 44 points in four games.

Nearly half of Bennink's 92 points have come at the free throw line where the WSC marksman has made good 48 out of 60 attempts for an 80 per cent average. Loscutoff has grabbed off 79 rebounds in Oregon's four games so far, a pace well ahead of the Northern Division record of 229 set by the Ducks' Chet Noe in 1953.

NCAA Abolishes Four-Minute Rule

NEW YORK-(AP)—The NCAA football rules committee Wednesday eased up on the anti-platoon substitution rule and made five other changes for 1955.

Accepting the recommendation of the Football Coaches association the committee eliminated the controversial four-minute rule segment at the end of each half and ruled that the players who start each quarter of a game will be eligible to leave and re-enter once during that quarter.

Although this is a step in the other direction from the two-year old change that outlawed two-platoon football, the committee and coaches had no inclination to return to platoon football.

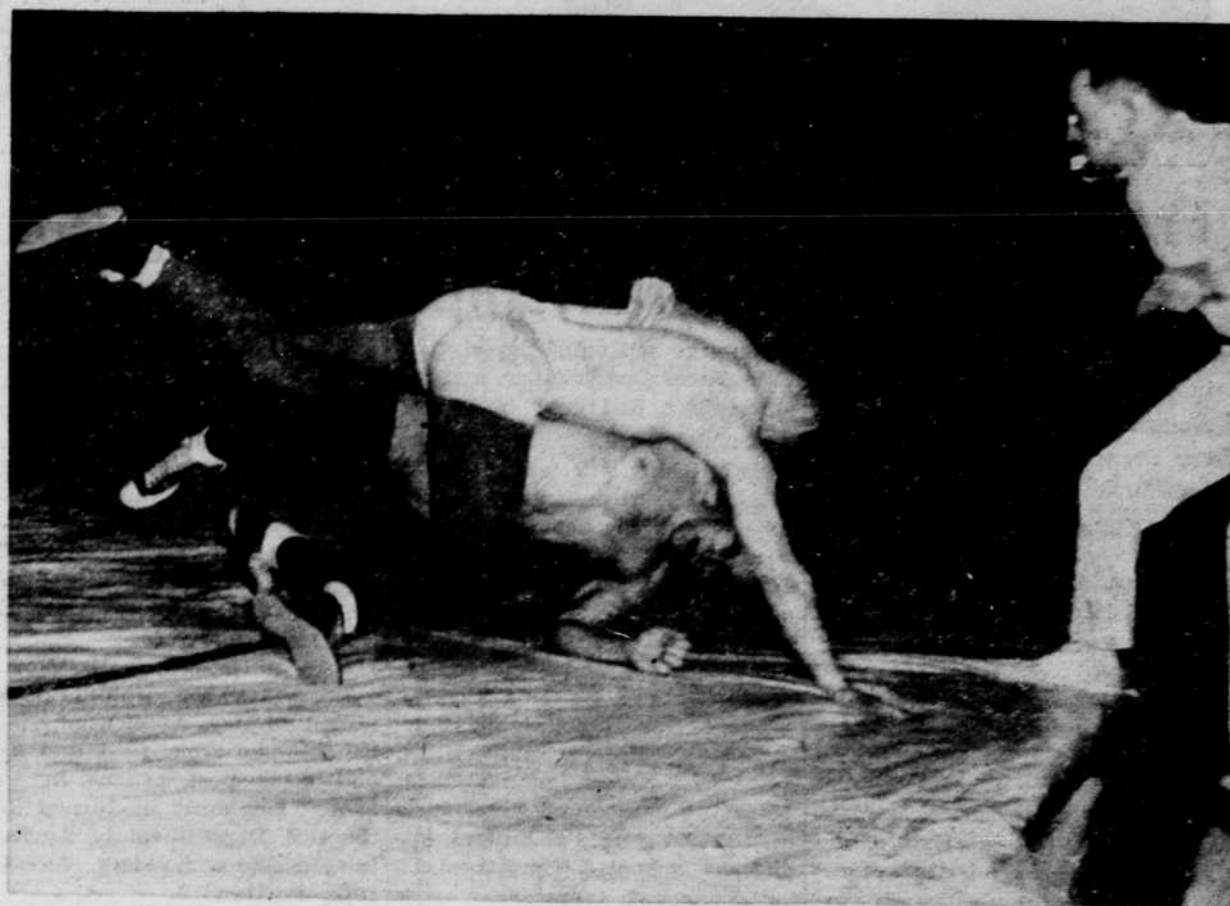

The idea was to abolish the four-minute rule, which some coaches felt made football a six-period game, and give coaches and doctors a chance to examine players without losing them for an entire quarter.

Rookies Atop NBA Scoring

National Basketball Association history was made this week as two rookies from a last-place team moved into the top spots in the league's scoring race.

Furman's Frank Selvy and Louisiana State's Bob Pettit, now with the cellar-ridden Milwaukee Hawks, held the 1-2 positions. The 6-3 Selvy had 707 tallies, just one ahead of his 6-9 teammate.

Selvy was on top for the first seven weeks but recently slipped to fourth. He jumped back in front with 115 points in six games, while Pettit poured in 179 in the same period.
