High School Girls Enter Pie Contest

Students representing Oregon high schools will participate in a cherry pie baking contest which will be held on campus Saturday, Jan. 22. This contest is sponsored by the National Red Cherry institute.

Margaret J. Wiese, assistant professor of home economics, is chairman of the judges. The winner will receive $25 and a trip to Chicago for herself and her chaperone where she will compete in the national contest. The winner of that contest will receive a $500 scholarship and a trip to New York and Washington, D.C.

One student from each senior high school in the state is eligible to participate in the contest. Contestants must be between the ages of 14 and 21 and be unmarried.

Secretarial Grants Open to Seniors

Two scholarships for senior college women are offered by the Katherine Gibbs School for secretarial training, for the 1955-56 school year.

Each scholarship consists of full tuition for the secretarial training course, plus an additional $500. Winners may select any one of the Gibbs schools for their training—Boston, New York, Montclair, or Providence.

Each college or university may recommend one candidate. All candidates must have the official endorsement of their respective schools. More information can be obtained from the Gibbs school in New York.

Contest Date Corrected For Fiction Deadline

March 1 has been set as the deadline for entering the Mademoiselle college fiction contest, according to Margarita G. Smith, fiction editor for the magazine.

The date was previously announced incorrectly. All entries, postmarked not later than midnight March 1, should be sent to Mademoiselle, 575 Madison Avenue, New York 22, New York.

• The Alpine club will meet today at 6:30 in the Student Union.

Carnival Workers To Meet Friday

Representatives of all living organizations participating in the WRA carnival are to meet Friday at 12:30 p.m. in the Student Union, according to Joanne Jolley, co-chairman of the event.

Booth themes not yet submitted, plans of each booth, and the two dollar booth fee from each living organization, should be turned in at the meeting, according to Miss Jolley.

AWS Officers Attend State Meet

Six members of the University's AWS cabinet will attend the annual state convention of Associated Women Students at Oregon State college Saturday, according to Janet Wick, AWS president.

Mrs. Golda Wickham, associate director of student affairs, will accompany the cabinet members. Rosemary Hampton Meredith, vice-president of the group, and Miss Wick will serve as discussion leaders during the day-long convention. Other delegates include Jane Bergstrom, secretary; Edna Humiston, treasurer; Margaret Tyler, historian, and Sally Ryan, international AWS representative.
