Whisperers to Play Up Storm Tonight at SU

Tonight's Fishbowl Mixer will contain a special feature, music supplied by a band.

"The Whisperers," who have previously played for Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Phi, Delta Tau Delta, and Carson hall, will provide the music. The baritone sax, which was presented for the first time by the group at their recent Delta Tau Delta dance, will be played by Jerry Feldkamp, sophomore in music. He also plays the tenor sax.

Larry Sowell, sophomore in music, will play the alto sax and the clarinet, and Jim Albert, freshman in music, will play the trombone and the string base. The piano will be played by Ray Johnson, freshman in liberal arts. Ralph Gary, sophomore in pre-dent, will perform on the drums, and Gary Donnell, sophomore in music, will play the trombone and string base. Four of the band's members also play for Roger Middleton's band.

UT to Present Manuscript Play

"Captive at Large," a new manuscript play, will be the first offering of the University theatre this term. The play, under the direction of Daniel Krempel, instructor of speech, opens next Friday.

David Mark, author of "Captive at Large," will be brought to the University campus in connection with the production of his play. He will lecture in the UT auditorium one afternoon while he is here.

Scott Lehner, junior in speech, has been cast as one of two "actors" in the production. Lehner played the leading role in UT's first production, "Bernardine," last fall. Ken Kesey, sophomore in speech, plays his first role this year as the second "actor." Kesey was seen last year in "One Touch of Venus."

Cast opposite the two "actors" are two "actresses." The first of these is Loanne Morgan, senior in speech, who played the queen in last year's production of "Richard II." The second is Floy Louise von Groenewald, senior in speech, who was seen last year in "Juno and the Paycock."

Other leading roles will be held by Bob Chambers, senior in speech, cast as the playwright, Bruce Holt, junior in speech, and Victor Heyden, instructor in speech, cast as the producer.

Other cast members include, Rita Schenk, sophomore in liberal arts; Harold Arendt, senior in history; Richard Barbour, senior in music; Dan Frank, sophomore in speech, Darrell Keeney, junior in speech; Paul Minty, senior in speech and Wesley Nelson, junior in physics.

Group Announces Fun Fest Theme

"Around the World" was chosen as the theme for the International Fun Fest at the first meeting of the committee chairman Wednesday.

General co-chairmen of the event are Kathryn Holloway and Elton Engstrom. Chairmen of individual committees are Carolyn Kaser, tea; Donna De Vries, social hour; Nancy Leaverton and Jean Fay, invitations; Jean Sandine, registration; Ed Hirano, dinner; Elliott Carlson, tickets; Chuck Brown and Gordon Ross, publicity, and Bob Biggs, discussion hour.

The Fun Fest will be held Feb. 5, and is sponsored by the YWCA and YMCA. Tickets for the dinner will go on sale next week.

Music Lecture Set

Tonight's Friday evening coffee hour in the browsing room of the Student Union will feature E. A. Cykler, professor of music. His topic will be "Beethoven, the Man and the Music," according to Ann Ogle, chairman of the browsing room committee. The talk will begin at 7:30. Coffee will be served.

Two Sororities Name Winter Term Pledges

Two more women have pledged sororities during the open rushing period. Joyce Larvick, freshman in education, pledged Alpha Delta Pi and Sylvia Baines, sophomore in education, pledged Zeta Tau Alpha.

Schedule Guinness Film

The popular British film, "The Man in the White Suit," starring Alec Guinness, will be shown in the Student Union ballroom Sunday at 2:30 and 5 p.m., according to JoAnn Rogers, movie committee chairman. Admission is 30 cents.

Modern Entertainment Planned for Sno-ball

Ultra-modern entertainment will be the feature attraction at the Frosh Sno-Ball intermission, Rob Roy, entertainment co-chairman, said Thursday.

The show will feature the Rutherford Trio, consisting of Bill Rutherford, Deacon Harris and Sam Whitney. Their act features singing, dancing, dialogue and a piano background.

Graves Music store in Eugene has loaned a Hammond organ to the freshman class and Mary Sweeney, junior in music, will provide background musical effects on the organ.

Narrator will be Tom Waldrop, freshman in speech. Cindy Randall, freshman in liberal arts is billed for a modern dance number. Other musical numbers, following the modern theme, will round out the show.

No admission is being charged for the Sno-Ball which is to be held Jan. 29. Freshmen women and men who have not yet made dates for the dance should contact the social chairman of their living organization as soon as possible to see what arrangements can be made. A pre-dance banquet for honored guests and the Sno-Ball committee chairmen will be held in the Straub dining room at 7 p.m. Formals for the women and dark suits for the men will be dress for the evening. Flowers are optional.

TGIF Party Planned

Bill Rutherford, freshman in liberal arts, will act as master of ceremonies in today's Friday at Four in the Student Union fishbowl, according to Helen Huse, head of entertainment this week. Jean Millhollen, freshman in liberal arts, will perform at the piano, and Tom Waldrop, freshman in speech, will do magic tricks.

There Was a Little Duck Who Had a Wooden Leg and he wandered down to the mulberry bush where he gathered all the leaves to keep his belly warm, and he said one drink would do no harm.

Now all you Ducks don't have to scrounge up some soggy leaves to keep warm while you enjoy an after-the-game snort. Just waddle down to Rod Taylor's. There you can nest awhile in one of the booths where it's nice and warm.

And while you are there may as well have more than one drink. A great big mug of beer—only fifteen cents. Why not come down this evening with your friends and keep out of the rain.
