

CAMPUS.....merry-go-round

At Delta Gamma

The engagement of Denise Kenyon and Dick Lewis, Phi Delta Theta, was revealed at a surprise dessert at the Delta Gamma house last Tuesday evening after closing hours. The couple have set no date for the wedding.

At Delta Zeta

Tina Fisk married Frank Taggart recently, and two other Delta Zetas are planning weddings for the near future. Shirley Fintell will marry Ron Hamock and Bobbie Hoy will become the wife of Gary Godfrey, Feb. 11.

At Gamma Phi Beta

Four pinnings have recently taken place among the Gamma Phi's. They include Tursa Wilcox to Skip Thayer, a Theta Chi from OSC; Sally Cummins to Marv Young, Sig Ep; Pat Leonard to Rex Davis, SAE, and Jo Hodler to Norm Forbes, Beta. Gall Harrison has announced her engagement to Wendell Smith, a Phi Delt at Oregon State. On Jan. 8, the Gamma Phi's attended the wedding of Molly Cashin and Harry Elliot.

At Kappa Alpha Theta

During the Christmas holidays three Thetas announced their engagements. Dorothy Kopp is engaged to Bob Summers, Theta Chi and ASUO president. Dot and Bob were named as the outstanding woman and man of their class last year. Before Christmas Freshman Pat Gordon revealed her engagement to John Humphrey, Beta at a "Talkathon" at her home in Salem, and to her sorority sisters at the beginning of winter term. Joan Hunter announced her engagement to Bruce Pervine, Beta Theta Pi. Nancy Adams is now wearing the pin of Don Bowman, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

At Kappa Kappa Gamma

Two Kappas have revealed their engagements since the beginning of winter term. Donna Brewer is engaged to Arden Christensen, Sigma Chi, and Jean Boyden to Leigh Hales, formerly of the local Beta chapter and now in the USAF in Florida. A recent pinning is that of Emiline Overhulse and Ralph Vranizan, Phi Delt. The first Kappa freshman to get pinned is Nadine Woodruffe. Nadine is wearing the SAE pin of Earl Culbertson.

At Pi Beta Phi

Most recent pinning at the Pi Phi house is that of newly initiated Sue Ramsby and Brent Hedberg, ATO. Four others have announced their pinnings since Christmas. They are Billie Bartle to Clark Cabbage, Phi Delt at Oregon State; Donna Mast to Jay Fournier, Lambda Chi, and Georgia Baker to Chuck Trapp, ATO at Oregon State. Mary Jo Carlson, who is practice teaching in Grants Pass, returned to the campus to announce her engagement to Stan Russell, Phi Delt and OSC graduate. Two Pi Phi's are planning winter weddings. Mary Jo Cornell will marry Al Taylor, of Beaverton, in Portland this Saturday evening. Marcia Dutcher and Gary Jones, Theta Chi, will be married March 20. Jackie Densmore and Lee Jackson, Phi Gamma Delta, were married during the holidays. Both are continuing their studies in Eugene.

At Zeta Tau Alpha

Romance has been in the news at Zeta Tau Alpha during and since the holidays. Lynn Bodding was recently pinned to Mike O'Harra, Sig Ep. Dee Dee Tritt has announced her engagement to Harlan "Sparky" Henry, a Phi Sigma Kappa and graduate of Oregon. Kathy Baugh is engaged to Lee Downing of OSC, and a June wedding is planned. Patsy Riehl is engaged to Dana Collins, who is an Alpha Gamma Rho at OSC.

Two weddings took place over the holidays. Nancy Cottingham was married to Dick Card of Medford, and is now at home there. Lois Hall was married to Howard Gruver of Oregon State college.

Six Women Pledge During Open Rush

Greek women's houses have pledged six more women during the open rush period, according to Golda P. Wickham, director of women's affairs.

Sigma Kappa recently pledged Debra Nelson, freshman in chemistry.

Dorothy West, freshman in journalism, and Susan Ravizza, freshman in liberal arts, have pledged Alpha Chi Omega.

Zeta Tau Alpha has announced the pledging of Kay Dunford, freshman in allied arts.

Lisa Hart, sophomore in liberal arts, was pledged by Kappa Alpha Theta.

Jean Singleton, junior in business, pledged Alpha Omicron Pi.

READ EMERALD CLASSIFIEDS

Send a contribution to
U. S. OLYMPIC TEAM FUND
540 North Michigan Ave., Chicago 11, Illinois

Splashers From Gamma Phi Win

Gamma Phi Beta won the swimming meet sponsored by the Women's Recreational association Wednesday evening at Gerlinger pool. Rebec house was in second place.

Events included regular races and form swimming for both beginners and advanced swimmers and a novelty race in each division. Beginners blew up balloons under water and advanced swimmers raced with lighted candles.

Members of the winning team were Margaret Ednie, Lisa Georgiandas, Nancy Hickox and Edie Lunde. Runners-up from Rebec house were Evelyn Dyer, Jeanne Nicholl, Erleen Sergeant and Karen Shreeve.

Bosses Named For Canoe Fete

Announcement of the Canoe Fete chairmen was made Wednesday night by Bob Schooling and Jim Light, co-chairmen of the steering committee.

Janet Wick will be in charge of the program for the event, assisted by a music or speech representative who has not yet been selected.

Floater committee co-chairmen are Sally Jo Greig and Darrel Brittsan. Joe Gardner has been appointed state-wide publicity chairman. Campus publicity will be handled by Susan Lamb, public relations by Andy Berwick, and promotions by Lewis Blue and Dick Hyder. Len Calvert will be in charge of finance.

The Canoe Fete which, prior to World War II was the feature attraction of Junior Weekend, is being revived to again make the Millrace an integral part of campus life.

This year's Canoe Fete will be a pilot for future years when it will be entirely sponsored by the junior class.

Patronize Emerald Advertisers

Women on the Campus

Emerald Women's Page

Sally Jo Greig and Marcia Mauney,
Co-editors

AWS Calls for Petitions Women to Vote on Feb. 24

Petitions have been called for by Janet Wick, president of the Associated Women Students, for officers on the AWS cabinet to be elected at women's elections Feb. 24.

Cabinet officers include president, who must be a junior at the time of elections; secretary and treasurer, sophomores at the time of elections; reporter and sergeant-at-arms, freshmen at the time of elections. The reporter's duty is to handle all publicity for AWS-sponsored events. Duty of the sergeant-at-arms is to keep the official record of AWS activities in scrapbook form. Vice-president of the group is the runner-up for president.

Deadline for petitions is Wednesday, Feb. 9. They may be submitted to Janet Wick at Pi Beta Phi or at the AWS cabinet meeting room on the third floor of the Student Union.

Y Director Seeks Service Chairman

Any girl interested in the chairmanship of the YWCA service project at the Skipworth Juvenile home should contact the YWCA, ext. 426, according to Eileen Lindblad, director of the "Y."

A GPA of 2.00 is required and the girl should be a sophomore or above with an interest in children.

The "Y" carries on a weekly recreational program at the home on Wednesday evening.

Popcorn Ball Sale To Begin Tonight In Living Groups

Tonight will begin a series of popcorn-ball sales in women's living organizations by the sophomore cabinet of the YWCA, according to Nan Hagedorn, chairman of the sophomore cabinet.

Alternating each week at different groups of houses, the popcorn-ball sales is the cabinet's project in connection with the national centennial celebration of the Y's founding.

Popcorn balls are priced at 10 cents apiece. Proceeds will go into the fund of this organization to be contributed to the national fund for this centennial year.

2nd Year Women Invited to Dessert

All sophomore women are invited to a dessert sponsored by the sophomore cabinet of the YWCA tonight from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at the Pi Phi house, Nan Hagedorn, cabinet chairman, has announced.

Entertainment will be provided by D. P. Hatch, instructor in art. He will speak to the group on "Folk Songs and What They Mean to Me."

Refreshments will be served. Admission is ten cents.

Yours to enjoy . . .

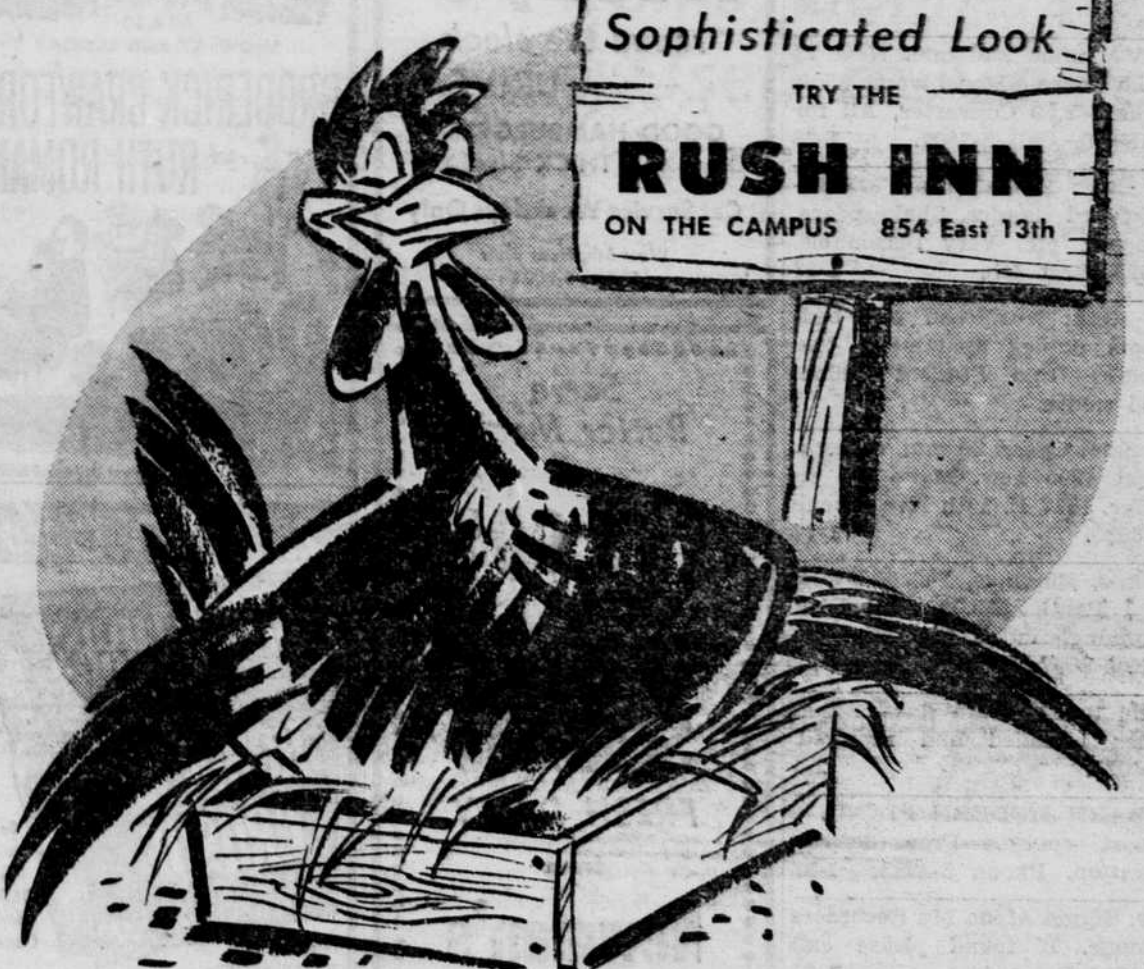

Sun and Fun
in Hawaii
with college credits

6 1/2 weeks live at
Wonderful Waikiki
Right on the Beach

For details call
Mrs. Agnes Biotti
Carson Hall—Ext. 334

For That Sophisticated Look

TRY THE
RUSH INN
ON THE CAMPUS 854 East 13th

Something New — Something Different
TRY A HOT FUDGIE