Fijis Drop Handball Go

Campbell club swept into the quarterfinals of the intramural handball tournament with a 3-0 win over Phi Gamma Delta Tuesday.

The winners took both singles tilts and got two forfeits in the doubles set to gain the victory. The Fijis picked up a 21-14 lead in the doubles set, but lost the game on the forfeits.

Campbell club reached Tuesday's second round action with an earlier win over Tau Kappa Epsilon. The Fijis topped Sigma Alpha Epsilon in two games and tied the doubles set to gain the second round playoffs.

Aggies Name Prothro Coach

CORVALLIS (AP)—J. Thompson "Tommy" Prothro, backfield coach for UCLA, Tuesday night was named head football coach at Oregon State college.

Terms were not disclosed by the ten-member OSC athletic board which announced the selection. The board said Prothro was hired on a "three-year basis."

Prothro, who succeeds Kip Taylor, said he expects to use the single wing at OSC, the same formation that UCLA used in its undefeated season last year.

Medford Retains First Place Grip On Prep Poll Vote

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Medford held on to its top position in the weekly Associated Press poll on high school basketball as two new teams climbed into the top 10 in the state.

Medford was idle the past week, and perhaps it was just as well in view of what happened to other leaders. Half of the teams in the top 10 suffered defeat, and as a result Pendleton tumbled out of the top 10 and South Salem almost did.

One of the newcomers was Franklin of Portland, which came from nowhere to grab sixth place. Franklin is a surprise leader in the Portland league.

The other new club is Beaverton, the leader in the Tualatin-Yamhill Valley league. The Beavers tied South Salem for 10th place.

The poll with the season record listed for each team:

1. Medford	43-1	117
2. Milwaukie	13-2	97
3. Eugene	12-2	90
4. North Bend	16-1	87
5. St. Helens	14-0	59
6. Franklin	6-7	34
7. Astoria	15-2	33
8. Albany	11-4	26
9. Cleveland	9-4	21
10. South Salem	10-4	17
10. Beaverton	12-3	17
Others: Marshfield 14, Corvallis 12, Grant of Portland 11, Milton-Freewater 10, La Grande 6, Pendleton and Harrisburg 3, Powers, Lakeview and Jefferson of Portland 1.

West Virginia Teams Make Defense Easy—More Points

BECKLEY, W. Va. (AP)—The approach to basketball defense in the West Virginia Intercollegiate conference is simplicity itself—score more points than the other team.

Last week, West Virginia Tech defeated Bethany by the star-dusting score of 137-80. That hot night boosted Tech's scoring average for 17 games to 115.6 points, a right potent defense and not bad as an offense.

When Bethany took the floor, it was the defensive leader of the 14-school conference. When the smoke had cleared the Bisons languished in third place.

In first place defensively at week's end, according to Sports Editor George Springer of the Beckley Post-Herald, conference statistician, was Shepherd college. Shepherd has held opponents to an average of 80.8 points a game.

How stingy can you get?

Husky Skiers Cop Victory

ROSSLAND, B. C. (AP)—The University of Washington nosed out rival Washington State college by one point for top place in the intercollegiate ski meet at Red Mountain, Jan. 8 and 9.

The official results were issued here Monday following final compilation by the judges.

Total team standings scored by NCAA system were: U of W 563.4, WSC 562.4, Idaho 551.2, Wenatchee 539.9, UBC 512.5, Whitman 498.5.

Strange Case of THE FOOLHARDY SKIER

THERE was once a young fellow who decided skiing was as easy as driving a car on snow-covered roads.

So one day he stepped into his new skis atop a slope, and pushed off. His friends were aghast! Such confidence! He knew little or nothing about the rules of skiing—how to turn—how to stop—how to use his poles and edges.

What happened? That's right. He ran smack into a large tree.

Everybody on the slope said he should learn the rules of skiing before taking such chances. But nobody mentioned that neither he—nor most of them—knew or practiced the rules of winter driving.

Doesn't that seem awfully foolish—and childish—when you think of the terrible death toll from winter traffic accidents? Just in case, here are the six rules* of winter driving.

THE SIX RULES OF WINTER DRIVING

1. Accept your responsibility.	4. Use tire chains and good tires.
2. Get the "feel" of the road.	5. Pump your brakes.
3. Keep the windshield clear.	6. Follow at a safe distance.

SAFE DRIVING IS A MARK OF MATURITY
