

'Viva Papa' To Begin Today

Three Special Programs Set

Dad's weekend will begin today with three special events planned for fathers of University students.

Today's Friday at Four is designed especially for dads and will include five acts. Performers will be Ken Kesey, ventriloquist; Sharon Beard, pantomimist; Mark Tapscott, vocalist; The Melodaires, and the Downbeats, a combo.

Voting Ends Today

Voting for Dad's day hostess will end today at 5 p.m. Booths are located at the Co-op and the Student Union.

Finalists for hostess and their sponsors are: Rosemary Hampton Meredith, Alpha Chi Omega; Nikki Trump Powell, Sigma Chi and Delta Delta Delta; Ann Hopkins Anderson, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Jackie Densmore Jackson, Alpha hall, Campbell club, Phi Kappa Sigma, Phi Gamma Delta and Pi Beta Phi.

The weekend hostess will be introduced tonight during intermission of the barbershop quartet contest in the SU ballroom.

Dads Invited to Game

Dads are also invited to attend the Oregon-Washington basketball game tonight in McArthur court at 8 p.m. The barbershop quartet contest will follow the game.

Registration for the weekend will begin Saturday morning at 9 a.m. at both the Eugene hotel and the Student Union. Registration will continue until 11 a.m. in the Eugene hotel and until 5 p.m. in the SU. Members of Kwama, sophomore women's honorary, will handle registration.

General admission tickets to the Saturday night basketball game between Oregon and Washington may be purchased when registering for the weekend. These tickets will enable the dads to sit with their sons and daughters in the regular student sections.

All dads are urged to register, since that is the basis for house awards for the best percentage of dads attending the weekend.

Wilson, Richards Speak

President O. Meredith Wilson and John R. Richards, chancellor-elect of the state board of higher education, will be the guest speakers at the special Dad's day luncheon Saturday at 11:45 a.m. in the SU ballroom.

Gordon Wilson, president of the University Dads' club will act as master of ceremonies for the luncheon, and Mrs. Dean Mickelwait, Oregon Mothers' club president, and Bob Summers, ASUO president, will bring messages from their respective organizations.

Special student entertainment will be provided by the winning barbershop quartet and Audrey Mistretta, senior in music, and Ray Hill, junior in music, who will sing two duets.

Dads Meeting Saturday

A business meeting of the Oregon Dads' club will follow the luncheon and will be held in the large lecture room in the science building.

Dads and students who are unable to obtain tickets to the luncheon will be served in the SU cafeteria and will hear the luncheon program over a public address system.

Trophies Given at Game

The sign contest winners and winners of the awards for the best percentage of dads registered for Dad's weekend will receive their trophies during the intermission at the Saturday night basketball game. Nan Hagedorn and Patty Fagan, co-chairmen of Dad's weekend, will award the trophies.

The sign contest has been changed to eliminate some of the work that has gone into the signs for previous big weekends. The signs will have no decorations or pictures, but will consist of a rhyme, slogan or verse and be judged on originality, relevance to the theme, and neatness.

Judging will take place Friday at 4 p.m. Judges are Ted Brown, Eugene chief of police; K. E. Montgomery, associate professor of speech, and Helen Soehren, assistant professor of English.

Three awards will be presented for the largest percentage of dads attending the weekend. The Karl W. Onthank trophy, won last year by Carson 4, will be awarded to the freshman group winning this competition. First and second place trophies will be awarded to non-freshmen living organizations with the highest percentage of dads attending.

The living organizations will have the dads as special guests for Sunday dinner at 1 p.m.

Panhellenic Suggests Greek Week Changes

By Sally Ryan

Emerald Associate Editor

Panhellenic Thursday night accepted Greek Week—but with reservations which would change the purpose of the week and most of its events.

Three officers of Panhellenic, President Carol Wenner, Secretary Janet Flatland and Treasurer Olivia Tharaldsen, will meet with three representatives from Inter-fraternity council to work out final plans and details for the week, which will be presented to a joint meeting of the two Greek organizations for their final acceptance or rejection.

Considered IFC Plans

Under consideration were the preliminary plans for Greek Week, as outlined by the IFC Greek Week committee.

Vigorous objections were made to the purpose of Greek Week as stated in the outline. A motion made by Dorothy Kopp, senior in English, to reword the stated purpose passed without dissent. Strongest objections were made to the clause "to elevate the Greek houses and put them a little apart from the rest of the campus in something besides the once a year elections and rushing."

Discussion centered around keeping the week as simple as possible. Final decision was to make the "week" one day, Saturday, April 2.

Panhellenic suggested that a picnic lunch be held on campus Saturday, followed by both men's and women's athletic contests and a street dance Saturday evening.

The IFC proposal called for a two-day affair, starting with a picnic dinner Friday evening, followed by a street dance. They also suggested Saturday afternoon athletic contests and a formal dance Saturday night in the Student Union ballroom.

IFC's suggested favors for the dance, miniature hack paddles with "U of O, Greek Week," and the date on them, also received a rap from the sorority representatives, who voted to eliminate the favors on the grounds that they "were not representative of Greek living."

Earlier IFC voiced the opinion that the approval of Greek Week by Panhellenic was necessary to make the week successful. They also suggested calling for petitions for chairman of the week. The chairman would be selected by a screening committee and by a vote of IFC.

YW Names King Finalists

Final contestants for King of Hearts were selected Thursday by the sophomore Y cabinet. Competing for the title will be Bud Hinkson, Alpha Chi Omega; Gary Alden, Kappa Alpha Theta; Martin Brandenfels, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Bill Shepard, Delta Upsilon; Dave Talbot, Alpha Omicron Pi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The King will be selected by campus vote the week before the Y-sponsored Heart Hop, which is to be held Feb. 11.

Hostessing the girl-ask-boy-affair this year are three women's living organizations, Alpha Chi Omega, Kappa Kappa Gamma and Delta Gamma.

General chairmen of the dance are Agnes Thompson and Sally Calkins. Heads of committees are as follows: Decorations, Julie Miller and Mary Gerlinger; refreshments, Alice Kihn and Marge Harmon; King selection, Rae Bergeron and Sandra Williams; publicity, Arlene Clark and Mollie Monroe; promotion, Carolyn Courtemanche and Judy Lou. Secretary is Ann Pette-son.

Unusual Children To Be Lecture Topic

"Providing for an Exceptional Child" will be the lecture topic delivered by P. A. Killgallon, professor of education, at 7:30 tonight in the SU browsing room.

Dr. Killgallon will discuss the child who is usually called abnormal. The boy or girl who is mentally gifted, who is blind or has some other physical disability, or who is mentally retarded, are characteristic in the group of children that Dr. Killgallon will talk about.

He will review the progress in furnishing these children an education, particularly in the state of Oregon, and the needs which still exist here and elsewhere in the world.

"ALL THE NEWS..."

Emerald Reporter Told To Leave IFC Meeting

By Bob Robinson

Emerald Assistant News Editor

An unwillingness to keep out news of any of the happenings of the Thursday night meeting of the Inter-fraternity council resulted in Emerald reporter Pete Taussig being asked to leave the meeting.

Taussig objected when the council informed him that he would not be able to print everything that went on at the meeting.

"Anything Newsworthy"

"As long as I am covering IFC meetings for the Emerald, I will report anything I consider newsworthy," Taussig told the council.

IFC President Pete Williams retorted that although "Emerald reporters are welcome to our meetings, there are times when matters we discuss, if published, would not be for the welfare of the campus as a whole. Therefore if the Emerald is going to take the alternative to print everything that goes on in our meetings, we will have to ask their reporters to leave."

"... I Left"

"I was not willing to stay under the condition that I suppress any news of the things that went on in the meeting," Taussig said, "so I left."

When queried about the misunderstanding, Ray Hawk, director of men's affairs and adviser of the group, said that:

IFC for Campus Welfare

"Sometimes things come up in our meetings that are best kept from the campus as a whole. Although IFC is a self-interest group, we feel that we are working for the welfare of the campus as a whole and not just our own group."

The discussion of Emerald reporting came up mainly as a result of a story by Taussig of the group's last meeting. At this meeting the IFC took a stand on the WRA Carnival which they didn't want reported at that time. Taussig reported the incident in his story the next day.

Quartets Compete In Contest Tonight

Six campus quartets will compete tonight for the winner's trophy in the 1955 barbershop quartet contest for Dad's weekend, sponsored by the SU music committee. The competition will be held in the SU ballroom following the basketball game.

Tickets for the contest are free, but are necessary because of the limited seating capacity of the ballroom. Tickets can be obtained today at the counter in the SU, and about 200 will be available tonight at the door.

Groups singing and their selections include: Beta Theta Pi, "Honey" and "Chocolate Whiskey and Vanilla Gin"; Phi Delta Theta, "Mention My Name in Sheboigan" and "Sailing on a Moonbeam"; Sigma Chi, "I Want to Harmonize" and "I Had a Dream, Dear"; Sigma Phi Epsilon, "Ain't She Sweet" and "Let's Pretend."

Two quartets are entered from Campbell club. One will harmonize "Mr. Moon" and "Gee But It's Great to Meet a Friend From Your Own Home Town"; the other, to "Beale Street Mama" and "Daddy, You've Been More Than a Mother to Me."
