YWCA Petitions Due Today; Slate Selected by Interviews

Today at 5 p.m. is deadline for YWCA petitions for the senior and sophomore cabinets, for both elective and appointive positions. Petitions should be submitted at the Y office in Gerlinger hall.

Freshman women may petition for the sophomore cabinet elective positions of chairman and secretary, with the runner-up for chairman becoming vice-chairman. Appointive positions on the sophomore cabinet are membership, finance, service, social, promotion, and publicity. Co-chairmen for the Duckling counseling program will also be chosen, as will several members-at-large.

YWCA president, second vice-president, secretary and treasurer petitioners must be a sophomore or above. Runner-up for president will be first vice-president.

Appointive Offices

Appointive offices on the senior cabinet are program advisers for worship, religious growth, international affairs, public affairs and service; membership chairman; house and social chairman; conference chairman; promotion chairman; publicity chairman and sophomore cabinet advisor.

Also included on the list of appointive senior cabinet positions are junior advisors for next year's freshman commissions.

Eileen Lindblad, executive director of the YWCA, will be available for any help with petitioning and for descriptions of each job.

Interested women should contact the YWCA office immediately at Ext. 426 for further information, or call Camille Wold, vice-president in charge of elections, at 5-6626.

Interviews This Week

Interviews of the candidates to determine the final slate will take place later this week and next week. Voting will be held Feb. 24 during the general women's elections. Officers for Associated Women Students, Women's Recreation Association and Young Women's Christian Association, will all be elected at that time.
