

Five Eugene Theaters Schedule Variety of Movies for Weekend

"The Racers" Showing

"The Racers," a first-run film in which sportscar driver Kirk Douglas speeds across Europe, pausing only for trysts with Bella Darvi, opens Saturday at the MacDonald theater.

Douglas proceeds through the Riviera, Italy, France, Belgium and Germany in the midst of "much elegant metal," which fanciers of horsepower should find "a prettier sight than old Europe," according to Time magazine.

Billed with the racing film is "Port of Hell," an adventure which stars Dane Clark and Carole Matthews.

Western Film at Heilig

The life of notorious frontier gambler Brett Dade forms the plot of "Dawn at Socorro," a western drama at the Heilig.

Rory Calhoun and Piper Laurie star.

"Master of Kansas," starring George Montgomery and Nancy Gates opens Wednesday at the Heilig. Co-feature is "Bamboo Prison," with Robert Francis and Dianna Foster.

English Film to Play

Opening Sunday at the Mayflower will be J. Arthur Rank's "Always a Bride," with Peggy Cummins and Terence Morgan. Miss Cummins stars as a polygamous miss whose face is her fortune. Co-featured will be "Run for Your Money," another Rank tale in the comedy vein.

"Rogue Cop" Featured

The Eugene Drive-in is featuring "Rogue Cop," the story of a cop gone bad, all weekend. Robert Taylor and Janet Leigh are starred in the film.

On the same bill is "Return to Treasure Island," starring Tab Hunter and Dawn Addams.

"Brigadoon" Playing

The Firs theater is showing the movie version of the Broadway hit "Brigadoon," starring Gene Kelly and Cyd Charisse, along with "Mission Over Korea." The latter film, a tale of the men who fly the unarmed reconnaissance planes of the air force, stars John Hodiak and John Derek.
