

Frosh Hoopers Add Win, Loss

By Jack Wilson
Emerald Sports Writer

The Oregon Frosh squeaked past Portland Air Base, 80-78, last Friday, then took an 81-64 shellacking from Dahl-Penne's tall and talented crew on Saturday. The Frosh went against the AAU squads as preliminaries to the Oregon-Idaho varsity games.

Guard Bob Ayre had his biggest night of the season as he collected 16 points to lead the Frosh to their Friday win. Big Ken Servas and Jerry Hefty hit for 28 and 20, respectively, to spark Dahl-Penne Saturday.

Frosh 80, Air Base 78

If the game had lasted thirty seconds longer, the score would probably have gone the other way. Ahead by eleven points at the four minute mark, the Ducklings saw their lead dwindle rapidly as Jack Griener and Dick Wickstrand poured in almost enough buckets to tie the score.

The Frosh managed to stay barely ahead through most of the first half, but at 6:40 Air Base Forward Tom Ferguson tied it up at 24-24 with two free tosses. Then Roger Diddock and Burt Williams started hitting to pull the Ducklings out to a 37-30 halftime margin.

Midway through the second stanza, the Air Basers caught up and passed the Frosh. They were ahead 48-47 when Lowell Slick put in a field goal to put the Ducklings in front for good.

Trailing Ayre in scoring for the Frosh were Paul Tucharadt with 13 and Hal Duffy with 10. Griener and Wickstrand both hit eight field goals and eleven charity throws for 27 points for the losers.

Dahl-Penne 81, Frosh 64

Touch and go all the way through the first half, the game developed into a rout following a 37-37 halftime tie.

Wendy Razor and Wimp Hastings, on the reserve bench at the ball game's start, sparked the Ducklings in the first half with jump shots and long howitzers that seldom missed. But Servas was unstoppable for Dahl-Penne, and the ex-Lewis and Clark All-Northwest conference choice got 16 in the first chapter.

A 39-39 tie was the closest the Ducklings got to a second-half lead. After that, the iron-man Portland five got red-hot, seeming to score almost at will.

High point of the second half for Oregon rooters was Hastings' display of alert ball-hawking.

Twice in less than a minute the ex-Bandon high star took advantage of a Dahl-Penne slip to steal the ball and drive for an easy layin.

Martin Swan scored the last Frosh basket at the 1:40 mark to make the score 75-64. Then Servas scored twice, and Damien Rocha ended the game with a layin following a length-of-the-court pass.

Tucharadt hooked in 22 points to lead the Ducklings. Hastings got 14 and Razor 12.

Tankers Win, Lose in Pair

Oregon's swimming team recorded its first Northern Division win of the year Friday as it downed Idaho, 52-31, but bowed to Washington State's strong team Saturday at the men's pool, 45-30.

Harry Fuller and Howard Hedinger were the ironmen for Oregon Friday as they paced the Duck tankers to the victory over the Vandals. Fuller won the 180-yard medley and the 220-yard and 440-yard freestyle events while Hedinger topped the 60-yard and 100-yard tests.

The better-balanced Cougar team was top tough for the Ducks Saturday as only Hedinger in the 50-yard freestyle and Bob Hays in the breaststroke recorded individual firsts.
