Clingman's

If you want to taste tempting fried chicken dinner, or a good steak—drop in to CLINGMAN'S on the Glanwood strip. Dance to the great music of the Pat Carrier Trio, now featured at CLINGMAN'S.

Piluso's
If you're downtown tomorrow night drop in at PILUSO'S and try some of their delicious pizza.

You can dance to the music of the Baker's Half-Dozen this Saturday night. Try the food and enjoy the music while you can, because next week PILUSO'S will be closed for a complete face lifting process. As soon as the remodeling is complete, Ben Yost and his Canadian Royal Guards will be appearing at PILUSO'S.

New Town House

If you want to take off to the Northland this weekend—don't forget to hit the brakes, and skid to a stop at the New Town House on your way out of town. It's only a couple of miles north of the overpass, on Highway 99. Their New York cuts are really tasty.

Bib 'N Tucker

Did you know the Bib 'n Tucker room in the Eugene Hotel serves "A-One-Grade" prime ribs, plus delicious ham or turkey sandwiches? After the show stop in with the gang for a snack, and listen to Wally Bullard plunk the piano. He really gets the good sounds.

Say, men, the Heart Hop was the most! The girls seemed to enjoy it too. So, give her the word to take you dancing again this weekend—this time at the Osburn Hotel's Colonial Room.

Weekend Movies Are Announced By Theaters

"Masterson of Kansas," a Western starring George Montgomery, and "The Bamboo Prison," wind up their appearance at the Heilig today and Saturday.

Opening Sunday is the new MGM musical extravaganza "Jupiter's Darling," starring Esther Williams, Howard Keel, Marge and Gower Champion and George Sanders.

The musical satire on the frolics and foibles of Rome has a supporting cast of 600 actors. Eighty-two sets were used in its production.

Companion feature is "Ricochet Romance," starring Marjorie Main and Chill Wills. The picture's title was inspired by the popular song of the same name.

The Silver Chalice

Opening at the MacDonald today is "The Silver Chalice," a Biblical tale of the moulding of the chalice for the cup from which Christ drank at the last supper. Stars are Jack Palance, Virginia Mayo and Pier Angelli and the newcomer Paul Newman.

Co-features are "Below the Rio Grande," in Cinemascope, and the documentary film "The Cowboy."

The Straw Men

"The Straw Men," an English mystery film starring Dirmont Welsh and Clifford Evans will continue at the Mayflower until Wednesday, when Japanese prize-winner "Ugetsu," requested by the University," opens.

White Christmas

The extravagant Vista Vision musical "White Christmas" plays at the North End Drive-in theater this weekend. Stars of the movie are Bing Crosby, Danny Kaye, Rosemary Clooney and Vera Ellen.

The musical score is by Irving Berlin.

On the same program is "Vista Vision Visits Norway," the first short produced in the newest wide-screen medium.

Susan Slept Here

Playing at the Firs theater on River Road is the comedy story of the romance of teen-aged girl (Debbie Reynolds) and a middle-aged man (Dick Powell), "Susan Slept Here."

Co-attraction is the exciting Western, "Drums Across the River," starring Audie Murphy, the most-decorated soldier in the US Army's history.
