

'Architecture Heritage' Browsing Room Topic

M. D. Ross, associate professor of architecture, will be the speaker at this week's browsing room lecture. "The American Heritage in Architecture" will be the topic of his lecture tonight at 7:30 in the SU.

Using colored slides to illustrate his talk, Ross will stress some of the characteristic qualities of American architecture as found in some of the major monuments in the nation. He will also discuss American architectural "inventions" as found in this country's buildings.

In primarily a survey lecture, he will emphasize the 19th century, which he calls the period "of positive creation of American expression" in architecture.

Ross has been an assistant professor of architecture at Tulane university and assistant professor of fine arts at Pennsylvania State college and the American Institute of Architects. He has traveled widely in Mexico, Europe and Central America.

John E. Stafford, Eugene architect, will be discussion leader for the lecture.

Alumni Leaders Meet Saturday

Leaders of the Oregon Alumni association will meet on campus Saturday for the seventh annual Alumni Leaders Conference, to be held in the Student Union.

County directors, club presidents, executive committee members and other officials will attend the program, which is planned to bring delegates up-to-date on the University, to coordinate alumni efforts and to give a more thorough understanding of everyday operation of the University.

First session will be held at 10 a.m., with registration preceding that. Discussion leaders and speakers include Les Anderson, alumni secretary; Bill Bowerman, assistant athletic director; ASUO President Bob Summers, and Kenneth Ghent, associate professor of mathematics and foreign student adviser.

University President O. Meredith Wilson will speak at the luncheon for the group.

Afternoon speakers include Dean S. W. Little of the school of architecture and allied arts; John R. Richards, chancellor-elect of the state system of higher education; State Senator Gene L. Brown, Football Coach Len Casanova, and William C. Jones, dean of administration.

FAVORITE SON

Solon Expects Demos To Name Morse Veep

MEDFORD (AP)—State Senator Mark Hatfield of Salem said Tuesday he expects Oregon Democrats to attempt to nominate Senator Wayne Morse as a vice-presidential candidate, to run with Adlai Stevenson in the 1956 presidential campaign.

Hatfield told the Jackson County Republican women that those two would be "formidable foes to our Republican Party."

Hatfield said he expected Howard Morgan, Democratic state chairman, to nominate Morse for vice president as a "favorite son candidate."

Cursing Won't Get Votes

The Salem senator advised "the only route to success in 1956 for the Republican Party is to do a good job in 1955, and cursing of the opposition will get no votes."

Agenda Posted For SU Meeting

The Student Union board will meet today at 4 p.m. in the board room. Included on the agenda are:

- Special Attractions—Ethel Smith.
- Interview with Garry McMurry.
- Directorate report.

Physics Teachers Will Meet at PSC

Physics department faculty members will travel to Portland State college March 5 for a meeting of the American Association of Physics Teachers. Between 60 and 80 physics teachers are expected from colleges in Oregon and Washington.

James T. Nelson, resident fellow of physics here, will talk on "Engineering Properties of Magnesium-Tin and Magnesium Silicide," and Joel W. McClure, assistant professor of physics, will speak on "Effect of Energy Band Structure on Lattice Parameters of Magnesium Alloys." E. G. Ebbighausen, associate professor of physics, will talk on "The Triple System Lambda Tauri."

Meetings of the association are held four times a year.

Interviews Begin Today to Select 'Little Colonel'

Interviews for Little Colonel candidates will begin tonight at 7 p.m. in the Student Union. Room number will be posted.

Candidates to be interviewed tonight include:

Alma Owen, 7 p.m.; Gloria Lee, 7:06; Pat Johnson, 7:12; Roberta Toner, 7:18; Kay Partch, 7:24; Diana Skidmore, 7:30; Beverly Jones, 7:36; Mary Constance, 7:42; Janet Wick, 7:48; Dorothy Kopp, 7:54; Ruth Joseph, 8 p.m.; Charlotte Britts, 8:06, and Janet Sayre, 8:12.

Further preliminary interviews will be held Thursday night, with six finalists to be selected from the group. The Army and Air Force ROTC units will then draw lots to determine which three candidates will be sponsored by each group.

Each ROTC unit will vote on the three they have drawn, and the two winners will be candidates for the title of Little Colonel.

Winner of the actual title will be determined by which of the group sells more tickets to the Military Ball, March 5. Tickets, which are $1.65 per couple, are on sale to members of the advanced corps and will be available to freshmen and sophomores Thursday.

Tickets Available For Friday Night

Tickets for Friday night's basketball game with OSC in Corvallis are now on sale at the ticket office in McArthur court.

The tickets are priced at $1 and $50 tickets are available to Oregon students. The Oregon section will be in the west end of the bleachers in Gill coliseum.

Beta's Conclave Set for Weekend

Beta Theta Pi's annual conclave and songfest will be held this weekend, with the conclave in Eugene and the songfest in Portland.

Events of the conclave will include registration, general session, luncheon, committee meetings, banquet and a dance. Breakfast at the chapter house Saturday morning will be followed by a general session of all delegates, which will close the conclave.

The songfest, which will be held at the Neighbors of Woodcraft hall in Portland, will feature competition between eight Beta chapters, with a trophy for the winner.

Guests and interested audience may attend the fest, which will follow a banquet, also at the hall Saturday night.

Fete Chairmen to Meet

Canoe Fete committee chairmen will meet tonight at 6:30 in the Student Union. The room number will be posted on the SU bulletin board.

Petitions for general chairman of Duck Preview are due at 5 p.m. today in the ASUO petition box on the third floor of the Student Union.

This year's Duck Preview will be held April 23 and 24. Petitions are available on the third floor of the SU.

Forum Scheduled For Thursday Night

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will hold a forum Thursday night at 7:30 in Science 16.

Topic of the forum is "Race—A Social-Cultural Concept."

Panel members include Joel V. Berreman, professor of sociology; William S. Laughlin, associate professor of anthropology, and Richard A. Littman, associate professor of psychology. The Moderator will be Kirt E. Montgomery, associate professor of speech.

World Famous Potter To Give Demonstration

Marguerite Wildenhain, head of the ceramics department of the Pond Farm Workshops in Guerneville, Calif., will give a demonstration on "pottery throwing" in the ceramic laboratory at 3 p.m. today.

An exhibit of the pottery of Mrs. Wildenhain is on display in the ceramics studios of the art building at this time. The display includes a variety of pieces, some of which will be on sale during the exhibition.

This world famous potter received her art training at the Bauhaus in Weimar, Germany, under the direction of Walter Gropius. She received her degree of master-potter there after seven years of training.

She was head of the Ceramics department of the Municipal Art School in Halle until her arrival in this country in 1940. She taught for nearly two years at the California College of Arts and Crafts at Oakland; since then she has had her workshop at the Pond Farms.

When Mrs. Wildenhain is not busy in her workshop or giving pottery courses to students from all over the United States, she conducts seminars at colleges over the country. She will be on the University campus for the remainder of the week.
