Do you have study-books stomach ulcers? If so, pamper them by stopping at SEY-

MOUR'S CAFE real soon. You can always depend on SEYMOUR'S for top quality sizzling steaks, and their chicken-in-the-rough is always terrific. Any time before 9:00 p.m. minors are cordially invited to chow-down in SEYMOUR'S beautiful Riviera Room. Whether you prefer eating in the main dining room or the Riviera Room, you'll find the food is always tops at SEYMOURS... open daily and Sunday 'til midnight.

The next time you drive out the McKenzie highway, be sure you stop at THE DRIFTWOOD. They have a complete menu of really great foods. Stop in and enjoy any one of their delicious dinners. Here's a sly tip. If you like fried prawns, you can't go wrong at THE DRIFTWOOD.

Relax and live it up after tonight's Oregon-O.S.C. game. Why not take the best girl dancing? Bop on down to the Osburn Hotel's Colonial Room. The Colonial Room now features the swinging music of Harry Douglas on the "88s." Before coming to Eugene, Harry was employed by Amato's in Portland.

Why not go continental? The CLUB CROSSTOWN features the best in continental foods. French, Russian, and Italian diners are their specialties. The CLUB CROSSTOWN is located two blocks east of the Big Y Market on Highway 99. Try their delicious pizza.

Say-hey! It's the DEL REY CAFE for home-style dinners that satisfy. The DEL REY is under new management. Your host will be Stanley Roberts. The DEL REY is open each night 'til ten, and you can always enjoy their fresh pastry, baked daily in their own kitchen. Our thirsty, of-age, friends will enjoy talking to Jake in the beautiful Parkside Cocktail Lounge—the atmosphere is the greatest.

You can't beat Foo's for fine Chinese food. Once more, Foo's features American dishes, and specializes in orders to take out. If you're hungry, and rushed for time, just phone Foo's. They'll have your order ready to go in a jiffy. Visit Foo's Oriental Lounge.

Wesley Will Show Movie of Founder

The motion picture, "John Wesley," life story of the founder of the Methodist church, will be shown at Wesley foundation this Sunday at 4, 6 and 8 p.m., according to Ken Petersen, director at Wesley.

The public is invited to see the new, feature-length film, which portrays for the first time on the screen, the character of John Wesley, 18th century evangelist and educator. The film is in the new Eastman color and was produced by the Radio and Film commission of the Methodist church in cooperation with J. Arthur Rank.

Wesley's rescue at the age of 5 from a burning house at the beginning of the film forecasts the dramatic and eventful life of the English clergyman depicted throughout the rest of the movie.

The slight-statured clergyman who thought his venture in America, as a missionary to the Indians of the Georgia colony, was a failure found it was the kind of failure which opened the door to the discovery of the religious security, Wesley had been seeking and later led to the founding of Methodism.

West Point Military academy opened July 4, 1802 with 10 cadets. It has been a military post since January 20, 1778.
