

Six College Graduates To Receive Fellowships

Six American college graduates will have an opportunity to study in Denmark and Sweden through fellowships to be offered this year by the two Scandinavian governments.

The fellowship program was announced only recently by Kenneth Holland, president of the Institute of International Education in New York. Holland revealed that each country plans to make three grants available.

The Danish government will offer their fellowships through the Ministry of Education. They will include funds for a year of study in an institution of higher education as well as expenses to cover a short orientation course. Since funds are limited, it will be necessary for the fellowship winners to pay their own travel and incidental expenses.

Sweden will offer somewhat the same type of a program through the Sweden-American foundation. The stipends will cover room, board and tuition expenses at a Swedish university. Candidates will also have to pay for travel costs on the Swedish grants.

Eligibility requirements for the fellowships are: United States citizenship, a bachelor's degree from an American college or university, demonstrated academic ability, good all-around character and good health. Preference will be given to candidates under 35 years of age.

Applications may be secured from the US Student Department of the Institute of International Education, 1 East 67th St., New York.

College Students Want Eisenhower

President Eisenhower will run for re-election in 1956 if the views of current college students are correct.

In a recent national poll by the Associated Collegiate Press 62 per cent of the students questioned answered the affirmative when asked: "Do you think Eisenhower will run for president for a second term in 1956?"

Of those expressing doubt, 23 per cent said that Ike wouldn't run again while the remaining 15 per cent gave "no opinion" as their answer.

Broken down, the poll revealed that 63 per cent of men questioned answered "yes" while only 60 per cent of the women answered favorably.
