Elgin Baylor Runs To Scoring Crown

SEATTLE (AP)—The curtain is coming down on the basketball season a bit too soon to suit Elgin Baylor of College of Idaho, who has boosted his scoring average to 30.75 points per game to out-run the rest of the Pacific Northwest's collegiate tally makers.

Baylor has climbed steadily through the season and took over the pace setting role only a couple of weeks ago. With only a few games left, his average was almost four points better than that of Norm Hubert of Pacific university, who has 26.9 with two games left to play.

The third corner of this triangle which has been waging a three-way battle for the lead has wrapped up the season with a 26.3 average. He is Don Porter, who led all the region's scorers last year for Portland State and now plays for Linfield.

Baylor also holds the lead in total score with 738 points with the end of last week's play. Porter ranked second in total at 684, Hubert had 646.

An even dozen players were averaging better than 18 points per game at last check. The battle for eighth place was tightest, Dean Parson of Washington winding up with 19.24, Loren Anderson of Seattle Pacific with 19.20 and Dick Stricklin—who still may better his average—shooting 19.17 with Seattle University.

Sederstrom Nabs Semi-final Spot In Frosh Track

Consolation winner Sederstrom hall advanced to the semi-finals of the Frosh dorms' track meet Monday with a tight 43 1/3-38 2/3 victory over French.

French trailed by only 2/3 points going into the final two running events, but Duane Root and Don Meskimen came through with wins in the 330-yard and 3/4 mile runs to insure the triumph.

Don Steen and Meskimen again paced the improved Sederstrom squad. Steen collected victories in the two pound ball throw, with a toss of 172' 1"; the high jump, with 5' 8" leap, and the 40-yard hurdles, with a time of 5.7 seconds.

Sederstrom faces Sherry Ross today at 3:45 p.m. to vie for the remaining spot in the championship meet with undefeated Omega. The finals will be held at 3:45 Thursday with a runoff meet scheduled for Friday if Omega is defeated.

Pick UCLA Coach Top Hoop Mentor; Mum on OSC Plans

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Johnny Wooden of UCLA was named coach of the year by the Southern California Basketball Writers association. Tuesday, but he proved a hard man to pin down regarding the Bruins' series with Oregon State for the Pacific Coast conference championship.

Johnny Moore, star of the Bruins' Southern Division title winning team, was elected player of the year.

Assistant coach Don Asher scouted Oregon State last week but Wooden ducked queries regarding his report.

He did concede that Swede Halbrook, the Beavers' 7'3" center, "is moving better than he did last year."

Pressed for his defensive strategy, Wooden clammed up.

The writers picked an all-PCC Southern Division team that included Moore, Ron Tomsic, Stanford; Bob McKeen, California; Morris Taft, UCLA, and Dick Welsh, Southern California.

Sears, McKeen Named to Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Ken Sears of Santa Clara and Bob McKeen of California were named Tuesday as the third and fourth players on the 10-man West squad for the fresh air fund East-West basketball game at Madison Square Garden, March 26.

Previously selected for the West team were Don Schlundt of Indiana and Bob Patterson of Tulsa. Four players already chosen for the East are Tom Gola of LaSalle, Dick Ricketts of Duquesne, Ed Conklin of Fordham and Maurice Stokes of St. Francis, Loretto, Pa.

Sears, 6'9", has been selected for the all-star team at the NCAA Western regional tournament for the past three years. McKeen, 6'7", is tabbed by his coach, Pete Newell, as "a better all-around center than Schlundt."

Hamilton, OSC Junior, Named Page in Senate

MEDFORD (AP)—Sen. Wayne Morse has named Alex Hamilton of Medford, an Oregon State college junior, to become a page in the Senate office building April 1.

The son of Moore Hamilton, Medford postmaster, Hamilton has been active on the OSC campus in the Young Democrats. He will continue his schooling at George Washington university.

Humez Outslugs Rival; Slated for Bobo Olsen

Oregon Swimmers To Host ND Meet

Coach John Borchardt's UO swimming contingent will entertain the Northern Division in the annual conference meet for the first time since 1949.

The University of Washington swimmers are favored to repeat their last year's performance and nab the crown. Next in line are both Oregon State and Washington State who will probably wage a tight race for runner-up spot. Oregon is figured for the fourth position, while Idaho is expected to end up in the cellar slot.

Action starts at 9:15 a.m. on Friday when the grueling 1500 meter free style event will begin, followed by preliminary diving. At 2:30 p.m. the preliminary for the 60 yard free style race will begin, with the 200 yard backstroke, the 220 yard free style, the 200 yard breast stroke and the one meter diving event following in that order. At 8:30 finals will be held for all afternoon events, plus the 400 yard free style relay.

Saturday morning at 9:30, the three meter fancy diving will start. At 2:30 the preliminary events will be held for the 100 yard back stroke, 200 butterfly, 100 free style, 440 free style, 180 individual medley, and the three meter diving finals of three dives. At 8:30, finals will be held for the afternoon races, with the 300 yard medley relay consisting of the five teams also competing.

The five teams slated to compete are Washington, Washington State, Oregon State, Oregon and Idaho. The last time the Ducks nabbed the title was in 1942. The meet is open to the public and no admission will be charged.

Michigan coaches won the football "Coach of the Year" award in both 1947 and 1948, with Fritz Crisler and Bennie Oosterbaan getting the honors.

Tuchardt Top Frosh Scorer

To the surprise of no one at all, final Frosh basketball statistics showed Paul Tuchardt far to the fore with 97 field goals, 39 free throws and 233 total points.

Pivotal Hal Duffy, rushed past him in the rebound department, however, taking 155 off the boards compared to Tuchardt's still-impressive 132.

Second in scoring was Dave Wanaka, with 146. The ex-Roosevelt high all-city forward was third in rebounding with 121.

Razor, Ayre Score Well
