

College Queen Contest Open

To select and honor on a national level the typical and most all-around versatile college girl in the nation is the purpose of the third annual National College Queen contest.

The winner of the contest to be held in Asbury Park, N.J., will receive a grand tour of Europe and $5000 in prizes. Undergraduate college girls between the ages of 17 and 24 years are eligible to enter the contest to be held September 9-11.

Judgings will be based on 50 percent for beauty and 50 percent for brains. Entry forms will request information concerning campus activities; extra-curricular achievements; scholastic work and personal background. Entrants will also submit an original essay (250 words or less) on the subject, "What College Education Means to Me." A snapshot or photograph is also to be included with the entry blank. The Youth Research Institute of New York City has been commissioned as the official scoring and marking body for the contest.

The National College Queen winner will receive the National College Queen Trophy Award; a Grand Tour of Europe with all expenses paid; scholarship awards and $5,000 in prizes including an all-purpose wardrobe of designer's clothes. State college queen finalists will receive round trip transportation to compete at Asbury Park, N.J., and will be guests of the City of Asbury Park while there.

Free entry blank forms can now be obtained by writing to: College Queen Contest Director, Convention Hall, Asbury Park, N. J.

WHAT'S THIS?

For solution see paragraph below.

"IT'S TOASTED" to taste better!

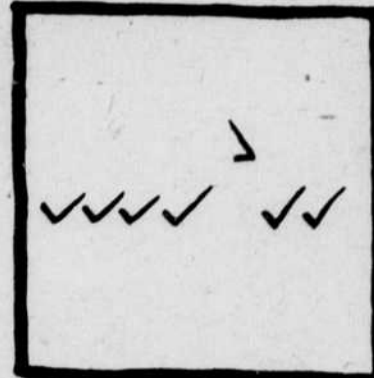

YOU'LL GET A BANG out of the Droodle above. The title is: Daredevil enjoying better-tasting Lucky just before being shot from cannon. Luckies are going great guns everywhere. The reason for their booming popularity is simply this: Luckies give you better taste. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better . . . cleaner, fresher, smoother. Enjoy yourself when you smoke. Have a little fun. Light up the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.

COLLEGE SMOKERS PREFER LUCKIES!

Luckies lead all other brands in colleges—and by a wide margin—according to an exhaustive, coast-to-coast college survey. The No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better.
