

Toast of Alphaholics

JOAN HAY, candidate of Kappa Kappa Gamma, was named "Toast of the Alphaholics" Saturday at Alpha hall's formal dance. She was selected by hall members in a secret ballot. Other finalists for the title were Bette Bartz, Alpha Phi, and Mary Helen Williams, Carson 3.

PiKA Names 'Dream Girl'

Maureen Doherty, freshman in liberal arts, is Pi Kappa Alpha's 1955 Dream Girl. The announcement was made at an annual house dance Saturday evening by house president, Dick Bach.

Miss Doherty is a graduate of Lincoln high school in Portland, where she was a Rose Festival princess. She was sponsored by Carson 3 and is a member of Delta Gamma. The Pi Kappa Alpha members presented the winner with one dozen red roses, a compact and a Dream Girl necklace.

The other candidates and their sponsors were Mary Jo Fourier, Hendricks hall; Pat Hoy, Delta Zeta, and Mary Lou Teague, Kappa Alpha Theta.

A joint resolution passed by the House and Senate states that the US flag is to be displayed on all days when the weather permits.
