Westminster Foundation

Open house will be held at Westminster Foundation, 1414 Kincaid, Friday beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday morning, coffee and rolls will be served from 9 to 9:30. A Bible study class will meet from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. The discussion of the gospel of Mark will be led by the Rev. J. Stanley Barlow.

Vespers will be held at 6 p.m. Sunday. A coffee hour at 6:30 will follow the worship service.

Christian House

Students will go as a group to an "Indian mela" at the First Christian church Sunday. The group will meet at Christian House, 736 E. 16th, at 5 p.m. The supper will be served Indian style and the program will climax a series of discussions on India, Ceylon and Pakistan. A special offering will be taken as part of the national Christian church observance of the Week of Compassion.

Election of officers will be held at Christian House Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Voting will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. each day.

Meditation Pamphlets Distributed by YWCA

Lenten Devotion booklets have been distributed to all YWCA members by the Religious Growth committee of the YW.

Meditations written by persons on the University campus are included in the pamphlets, according to Rose Warner, committee chairman.

Continental Look

It will as long as clothing trends take to natural lines," said the article's author, Perkins Bailey. This is in accord with items featured at Bill Baker's. The Italian button-roll collars have been popular on campus, if Baker's sales are indicative.

The three button coat, fashioned after the Ivy League model, pastel sweatershirts, crew neck sweaters . . . these items, too, have been popularly featured. For Spring, it will be lightweight sports clothes, as styled by Jantzen and Balboa Originals.

But as for men's Bermuda shorts! They'd better stay in Bermuda, according to representatives of all three stores. The controversial above-knee-length pants will not take over the campus, they predict. "There may be a few on the golf courses . . . but our climate's no darn good!"

Women's Fashions

sure to meet approval when picnic time comes around. Bermuda shorts which were tops for studying now go outdoors and the winter wool has been replaced by linen and cotton. A perfect topper is the Italian-inspired shirt with lots of freedom or you can be ship-shape in a middy blouse.

For the campus mermaids there are many new cotton swimsuits which look super sauntering down the beach as well as giving super service in the water. What's especially nice is the tiny price so you can have two suits with no strain on the budget. We've heard it said that variety is the spice of life.

Where can you buy these fashion firsts? Well, look over the Emerald advertisements and find out for yourself!

The executive council will meet at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday.

House devotions are scheduled for 10 p.m. Thursday.

The Married Students' group will hold its next potluck dinner at 6:15 p.m. March 28.

Luther House

The Christian doctrine study class will meet at 9 tonight at Luther House, 1376 Alder. The meeting will be led by the Rev. Ed Svenson of Corvallis.

No program has been planned for Sunday, but open house will be held all day.

Luther House students are planning a ski trip during spring vacations. Students who wish details about the trip may call Luther House, 4-7373.

Christian Science

The Christian Science student organization will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday on the first floor of Gerlinger hall.

Oregon Alum Has Passion Play Role

Thomas J. Mitchell, a University alumnus, plays a leading role in "The Son of Man," Mt. Angel Seminary's passion play which opened March 5.

The speaking choir for the production is the Gregorian Choir, which appeared on campus in concert last year.

The only spoken words in the play are from scripture as interpreted by the four evangelists, with emphasis from the speaking choir.

Annual payments of $430,000 are made by the US to Panama for the lease of the Canal.
