

Religious Notes

By Anne Ritchey
Emerald Assistant News Editor

Deadline for Religious Notes is 3 p.m. Wednesday. All information should be submitted to the Emerald news office.

Christian House

A birthday party, celebrating the sixth year of Christian House, will be held Saturday night at 7:30. Chairman of the party is Carl Cobb, of the house recreation committee. Alumni and friends have been invited.

A dinner meeting Thursday was held to plan future activities for an older-student group. Norma Terry and Bob Biggs are co-chairmen of a committee to plan future events, which will provide fellowship, study and activities for older students.

Installation of new officers is scheduled for Sunday evening at 5:30, under the chairmanship of Lyle Spears.

Officers include Jean Miller, president; Gennie Eachus and June Fulco, vice-presidents; Sally Byron, recording secretary; Nell Carlson, corresponding secretary; Lavonne Cone, historian; Lyle Spears, treasurer; Dick Fishback, Duck Call editor, and Bob Randall, executive adviser.

Beginning Monday morning and continuing through Friday, early morning Easter-week chapel services will be held at the house at 7:30 a.m. Tim Kribs, worship chairman, is in charge of the chapels.

Channing House

Channing club's meeting, Sunday, will feature Warren C. Price, associate professor of journalism, speaking on "The Hearst Empire."

The meeting will be held at the Unitarian church, 11th and Ferry streets, and will begin at 7 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Dart Leads Talk; Students Invited

"Kinds of Human Experience Leading to Scientific Knowledge" will be the topic of a discussion to be led by Francis Dart, assistant professor of physics, Monday at 8 p.m. in the Faculty club.

The meeting conducted through the faculty committee on religious and spiritual activities, is to be the first in a series of related discussions concerning experiences leading to various types of knowledge, according to P. J. Powers, committee chairman.

Students, faculty members and others interested in a discussion of such issues in an atmosphere of academic neutrality are urged to attend the first meeting. The formation of this group could provide "a unique experience and become a continuing part of campus intellectual life," Powers stated.

Phi Gamma Delta Hosts Convention

The Oregon chapter of Phi Gamma Delta will host a sectional convention of the fraternity to be held in Eugene this weekend.

Representatives from chapters at Oregon State, University of Idaho, University of Washington and British Columbia will attend. Beardslee Merrill, section chief, and Ralph Cake, national president, will be present at the convention.

Purpose of the conference is to exchange ideas for the mutual benefit of the chapters.

Wesley House

An April Fools party, open for all students on campus, will be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight at the house, 1236 Kincaid.

Sunday morning at 9:30 the Koinonia Klass will meet, and at 5:30 Sunday evening there will be a supper with an evening program following. It will center around worship leading up to Holy Week.

The University Religious Council's potluck and installation of officers will be held at the house at 5:30 p.m.

Choir rehearsal will be held Thursday at 6:30 p.m. New members of the choir and those interested in joining are especially invited. Chapel will be held Thursday at 9:30 p.m.

Holy Week services will be held in the Wesley chapel each evening, April 4 through 8, at 9:30 p.m. Speakers will include Russ

Walker, executive director of the YMCA, Monday; Robert Ellis, from Canterbury club, Tuesday; Stanley Barlow, from Westminster Foundation, Wednesday; Dulcinea Elliott, from Christian House, Thursday, and Kenneth Peterson, from Wesley Foundation, Friday.

Westminster House

A cabinet meeting will be held today at noon, and tonight will feature an April Fool's party and Soek hop, to be held at 8 p.m. at Westminster house, 1414 Kincaid.

Saturday there will be a potluck supper for the married group at 7 p.m. Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, will speak on "The Married Students' Place in Campus Life."

Sunday morning coffee and rolls will be served at 9 a.m., with church school convocation following at 9:30. At 9:40 study classes will be held, one on "A Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith," led by Fay Dickerson, and one on "The Life of Jesus Christ," with special reference to the Gospel of Mark. This will be led by Mr. Barlow.

Church will be at 10:30, and a fellowship supper, which costs 35 cents, will be held at 5:15 p.m. Vespers and installation of officers will be held at 6 p.m.

Chapel service will be held from 12:30 to 12:50 p.m. Wednesday, conducted by a student leader. Wednesday evening a fellowship supper will be held at 5:30, followed by a student kickoff for the retreat, at 6:15.

An informal coffee and tea hour will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Thursday.
