

Fast, Powerful Automobiles May Increase Accidents

The manufacture of faster and more powerful automobiles in recent years may have something to do with the increase in highway accidents but it is not the primary factor, according to many college students.

In a recent nationwide poll the Associated Collegiate Press found that students definitely feel that "drivers, not cars, are responsible for auto accidents."

Students participating in the poll were asked the following question:

"It has been charged that the yearly competition among automobile manufacturers for faster and more powerful automobiles is responsible for the increasing highway accident toll. Do you:

agree, disagree or are you undecided?"

The answers showed a definite disagreement with the charge. Sixty-six percent of those polled disagreed while only 24 percent went along with the charge. Ten percent were undecided.

Men had even stronger feeling in the matter than women, as 71 percent of the males queried were in disagreement while 60 percent of the women felt the same way.

A senior coed from the University of Minnesota seemed to express the general feeling of the group when she said, "Speed causes most accidents. The egoist behind the wheel tries to show off."

Phi Psi's Capture Laurels in Race

Phi Kappa Psi won the chariot race in the afternoon's athletic events in Oregon's first Greek Week. Dean Boyle was the winning rider, with Don Dexter and Don Biehm as the "horses."

The sack race was won by Carol Aiken, Delta Gamma. Jim Potter, Delta Tau Relta, and Carol Wiese won the three-legged race. Dick James, Theta Chi, was the winner in the marathon bicycle race. Chuck Greenley, Sigma Chi, and Phil McHugh, Phi Delta Theta, won second and third places, respectively.

The women's football game between the sororities divided along 15th street into north and south teams ended in a nothing-to-nothing tie.

Pamphlet Announces 1955 Foreign Summer Schools

Foreign summer schools which will be open to U.S. students this summer are listed in "Summer Study Abroad 1955," a recently-published pamphlet.

The 21-page leaflet lists educational institutions in 22 countries which offer summer programs. It tells where to apply and gives helpful information on credits, living arrangements and costs, transportation and passports and visas. Scholarship information is given. Early application should be made for the few awards available.

The majority of courses offered to summer visitors are designed to give insight into the language, history and culture of the host country. In addition to such "civilization" courses, instruction is given in art, music, world affairs and other subjects.

"Summer Study Abroad 1955" names only those courses which are sponsored by foreign educational institutions. Reference is made to other publications which discuss study tours, work camps, student travel or other opportunities for a foreign summer.

The pamphlet was published by the Institute of International Education, 1 East 67th, New York City.

Photo Bureau Manager Resigns from UO Post

Arthur D. French, manager of the University photographic bureau for the past eight years, has resigned to enter private business in Roseburg. Librarian Carl W. Hintz made the announcement late last week.

French will take over his new post April 15. His replacement will be announced some time this week.

The new position which French will move into is with the Fredrickson Photography laboratory in Roseburg.

Psychologists to Hear Philosophy Speaker

Alburey Castell, head of the philosophy department, will speak informally at a Psi Chi luncheon Tuesday noon in the Student Union. The meeting proper follows lunch and begins at 12:30.

Faculty members, students interested in psychology and Psi Chi members are invited to attend.

$50 in Prizes Offered In UO Library Contest

The annual University library day contest will be held May 14, with prizes totaling $50 in books to be awarded first, second and third-place winners in each division.

The divisions include undergraduate students' general library, undergraduate students' specialized library, graduate students' general library, and graduate students' specialized library.

Co-op Sponsors Contest

Sponsors of the contest are the University Co-op store, the Association of Friends and Patrons of the library, the University library, campus house librarians, and Mrs. Henry Tromp, a member of the Friends and Patrons' board of directors.

Entries for the contest should be submitted with a typewritten draft, describing the library's theme, to be displayed with the books.

The books should be arranged in the reserve reading room by noon Saturday, May 14, and must remain on display until 5 p.m. Sunday, May 15.

Deadline Is May 13

The entries must be made by noon Friday, May 13, to Miss Bernice Rise, browsing room librarian, in the Student Union browsing room. They must be limited to 50 titles for each category, and may include required textbooks.

Each book must bear a definite mark of ownership, and a list of books being submitted must accompany each entry. Pamphlets, maps, charts, and other non-book material may be included but will not count in the total number of volumes exhibited.

Hintz Appoints Judges

Judging will be done by a committee of seven for each category, by judges appointed by Carl W. Hintz, University head librarian. Judging will take place at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 14. Libraries will be judged on the selection of titles as they meet the objectives of a student's private library.

Prizes will be awarded Saturday evening, May 21, at the banquet of the Association of Patrons and Friends of the library, by Hintz. All prize winners will be banquet guests of the association.

Winners will select their books at the Co-op store.

Junior Prom Petitions Due Tuesday at 5 p.m.

Tuesday at 5 p.m. is the deadline for petitions for sub-committee chairmanships of the Junior Prom. The petitions are to be turned in to the Junior Weekend headquarters on the third floor of the Student Union.

Sub-chairmen to be in charge of decorations, programs, tickets and clean-up are needed.
