Language Head Tours Schools

D. M. Dougherty, head of the foreign language department, is on an extensive tour of the high schools in Klamath Falls. Dougherty is making the tour to obtain an evaluation of the foreign language courses presented in the Klamath high schools. This trip is similar to his Seattle trip made a few days ago with members of The Pacific Northwest Conference of Foreign Language Teachers. Dougherty will return to Eugene Wednesday evening.

Junior Weekend Chairmen Chosen

Sub-chairmen for the Junior Weekend queen selection and coronation committee have been announced by Barbara Bailey and Anne Ritchey, co-chairmen. They are Mary Sandeberg, selection; Nancy Marston, pictures; Mary Gerlinger and Nancy Adams, voting; Joyce Bearden and Carol DeVilbiss, contact; Sue Morris and Alice Belt, sponsors, dresses and fliers; Julie Miller, presentation; Don Lovett and Chuck Wingard, set up, and Bev Chamberlain, publicity. These chairmen will meet in the Student Union today at 3 p.m. to select committee members and receive reports.

Jacobson To Serve On Education Committee

Paul B. Jacobson, dean of the school of education, will leave today for San Francisco, to serve on a screening committee of the Fund Committee for the Advancement of Education. The duties of the screening committee include selection of the scholarship winners from a group of teacher applicants.

Petitions Due Friday For Annual Breakfast

Petitions are due Friday for general chairman of the YWCA-sponsored annual Junior-Senior breakfast, May 1. The breakfast is for all junior and senior women on campus, but is administered at the YW office and is sponsored by the entire YW group. Petitions should be turned in to their office, in Gerlinger hall.

YWCA Sponsors Leadership Panel

Today's leadership training session sponsored by the YWCA will feature a discussion on "Group Functioning" led by Herbert Bisno, assistant professor of sociology. Meeting will be at 4 p.m. in the Student Union, with the room number to be posted. These sessions are open to the public and are designed to help anyone who will be working as a group leader or group member. Bisno will use several student groups to demonstrate the "do's" and "don't's" of group membership and group leadership. They will illustrate the various ways a group may arrive at a decision in a democratic manner.

Mother's Weekend Petitions Due Friday

The deadline for petitions for committee chairmen for Mother's Weekend is Friday at 5 p.m. on the third floor of the Student Union. Positions to be filled are hospitality, promotion, registration, publicity, tea, breakfast, tickets, awards, housing and general secretary.
