

Winter Term Honor Roll Released

Thirty-four University students made perfect 4.00 GPA's according to the winter term honor roll as released by the registrar's office Wednesday.

The mark of 34 people making perfect grades almost doubled the fall term total of 19.

A grand total of 266 students made the winter term honor roll as compared to 201 fall term.

Sophomores led the way on the list with a total of 74 students making the required 3.5 or better. Seniors placed second with 66 and the juniors and freshmen followed in that order with 58 and 54 respectively. The rest of the spots were taken up by special students.

Training Sessions Held at YWCA

Two YWCA leadership training sessions will be held Thursday. One, at 4 p.m., will be a regular session while the other, at 6:30 p.m., will be a make-up meeting for persons who miss the regular meeting.

The regular session will be devoted to the YWCA and all its related organizations and fields of work. Gladys Lawther, YWCA regional secretary from Portland, will give a talk on the relationship of the local organization with the national group. She will show a movie of the beginning of the Y movement.

Special Features To Honor Brides

Campus brides will be honored all next week in the Emerald's first Bride's Week promotion.

Four University of Oregon couples will be featured, being photographed in Eugene stores as they select merchandise for the ceremony and their future homes.

Barbara McNabb, Sut Ralston, Hope Holgerson and Tedro Croley have been chosen to represent all-campus June brides. The Emerald plans special Bride's Week features, and advertising will also be solicited in conjunction with the promotion, which will be spread throughout all five issues of next week.

Graduate Assistant Given Scholarship

John Hess, graduate assistant in business administration, has been awarded the Levi Stevens Memorial Scholarship worth $1500 to be used at Stanford university in the graduate school of business, during the 1955-56 academic year.

Hess plans to work for a Ph.D. in business administration. Then he would like to return to this university to teach.

As a graduate student at Oregon for the last two years, Hess has been a research assistant for the Bureau of Business Research, and now is a graduate assistant to V. P. Morris, dean of the business administration school. Hess is minoring in economics this year.

A native of Iowa, Hess graduated from the University of Iowa. He was a member of the executive council of the Iowa Mountaineers, a large campus organization that emphasized outdoor activities and sports. After graduation, he spent two years in the service as a personnel officer.
