Campus Leaders Appear on Panel

Bob Funk, last year's ASUO vice-president; Bob Schooling, co-chairman of the Canoe Fete; Andy Berwick, SU Board chairman, and one member of the ASUO senate will comprise the student portion of the ASUO-sponsored student government panel April 14, it was announced Thursday.

Faculty members will be Les Anderson, University alumni secretary and ASUO president in 1942-43, and Bill Bowerman, assistant athletic director, ASUO vice-president in 1934.

The discussion is open to all students on campus and will be held in SU 334 at 8 p.m. Free coffee will be served.

'Blood Wedding' Tickets Available

Tickets are still available for the Saturday night performance of "Blood Wedding," the University Theater's production of this Spanish poetic drama by Federico Garcia Lorca.

The production is being handled entirely by Helen Watson Adams as work towards her master's degree and is the first thesis production to be presented by the University Theater.

Tickets may be obtained at the University Theater box office for $1 after 1 p.m. Reservations can be obtained by calling 5-1511 or ext. 401.

No tickets are available for tonight's performance.

Dorwin Elected President of IFC

Kent Dorwin, junior in history and president of Sigma Chi, was elected president of the Interfraternity council Thursday night in a meeting held at Gerlinger hall.

Dorwin, who succeeds Peter Williams, defeated Darrell Brittsan, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Jerry Farrow, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Jud Smith, Phi Kappa Psi, for the position.

Other officers elected include Farrow, vice-president, and Irwin Caplan, Sigma Alpha Mu, secretary-treasurer.

The council also discussed plans for Duck Preview and heard a progress report on Operation Easter Egg.

Ray Hawk, director of student affairs and adviser of the organization, issued an invitation to the group to hold its next meeting at his home May 21.

Inspectors Wanted By Civil Service

The United States Civil Service commission has announced an urgent need in the federal service for persons qualified for the position of Patrol Inspector (trainee).

The positions pay $3795 a year and are in the Immigration and Naturalization service located principally in the Southwestern part of the US.

To qualify, applicants must pass a written test and must be in excellent physical condition. The maximum age limit (waived for veterans) is 35 years.

Further information and application forms may be obtained from the US Civil Service commission, Washington 25, D.C. Applications should be mailed to the Board of US Civil Service examiners, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Temporary Building X, 19th and E. Capitol St., Washington 25, D.C. Applications will be accepted until further notice.

Dental Assistants Eligible for Jobs

Dental assistant positions with the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of Interior, and other federal agencies in the states of Idaho, Washington and Oregon are now open, according to the United States Civil Service commission.

Applicants for the position must take the Civil Service examination and have a minimum of six months training or experience as a dental assistant. The dental assistant position pays $2750 to $2950 a year.

Complete information and application forms may be obtained by contacting the Civil Service representative in this area. Information may also be obtained from the Regional Director, 11th Civil Service region, 302 Federal Office building, Seattle, Washington or from the Northwest board of Civil Service examiners, Department of Interior, P.O. Box 3537, Portland, Oregon.
