Canterbury Club

The Pacific Northwest regional conference for Episcopal students will be held April 29 to May 1 at the University of Washington, Seattle, Wn. Guest speaker will be the Rev. William Gordon, bishop of Alaska. Theme will be "The Story You Write With Your Life."

The conference cost of $6 will include registration, housing, and meals. Interested students may obtain information from the Rev. Robert Ellis, 5-7908, or Inga Shipstead, 5-9523.

Christian Science

The Christian Science organization for students will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday on the first floor of Gerlinger hall.

A free Christian Science lecture on "Christian Science, the Operation of Divine Principle in Our Behalf" will be presented at 8 p.m. Monday on the second floor of Gerlinger hall. Lecturer will be Ralph E. Wagers, C.S.B. of Chicago, Ill., and member of the board of lectureship of the Mother Church, Boston, Mass.

Christian House

Approximately 20 University students are scheduled to leave this afternoon for the three-day regional conference of the Northwest Disciples Student Fellowship on the Columbia river. Conference speaker will be Barton Hunter, national director of the social action department of the Disciples of Christ church.

Hunter will be in Eugene next week to talk with interested groups about social action projects. Doris, Christian House social action chairman, is in charge of arrangements for groups meeting with Hunter.

The regular Sunday morning "Donut Hour," at Christian House, 736 E. 16th, at 9:15 a.m. will be followed by Bible study classes led by Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business, and by the Rev. John Boosinger.

The 5:30 Sunday evening meeting will be conducted by the delegates to the DSF regional conference. Discussion topic will be "If Ye Be My Disciples." An informal fireside will be held at 9 p.m. Sunday.

The Older Students' group will hold a potluck dinner and discussion period from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Tuesday. Students planning to attend should call Norma Terry, 5-8727, or Christian House, 5-3491.

Luther House

Cars will leave Luther House at 3 p.m. today for the weekend retreat at Camp Westwind on the Oregon coast. Students from campus Lutheran organizations throughout Oregon will participate in the annual retreat.

Students will return to Eugene Sunday in time for a 6 p.m. meeting at Luther House, 1376 Alder. A student panel discussion of the book, "Campus Gods on Trial," has been scheduled.

A study group on "The Lutheran Reformation" will be led each Thursday at 9 p.m. this term by the Rev. Edvard Svenson of Corvallis.

Wesley Foundation

The Oregon Methodist Student Movement conference will begin today at Camp Magruder. Cars will leave Wesley Foundation this evening. Theme for the conference, which is scheduled to last through Sunday, is "The Christian Ethic and Moral Dilemmas." Speaker will be the Rev. John H. Otwell, from the Pacific School of Religion.

The movie, "City Story," will be shown Tuesday evening at Wesley Foundation, 1236 Kincaid.

The movie will be shown after the potluck dinner at 5:30 p.m. Chapel services will be held at 9:30 p.m. Thursday. The chapel is open all day on Thursdays for meditation.

Westminster Foundation

The Westminster Foundation cabinet will meet at noon today. Open house is scheduled to begin at 8 tonight at Westminster Foundation, 1414 Kincaid.

A work party will be held at Westminster Saturday.

Sunday morning activities will begin with a light breakfast at 9 a.m. Convocation will be held at 9:30 and will be followed by two classes at 9:40. One class will discuss "the Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith" and the other will study "The Life of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark," under the direction of the Rev. J. Stanley Barlow.

Mr. Barlow will be installed as Presbyterian University pastor at a service at 6 p.m. at Westminster House. The Rev. John D. Furnas, Oregon field director in Christian education, will give the main address. A reception for Mr. Barlow will be held at 7:15 p.m. after the installation.

Betty Herrman will lead the student chapel service from 12:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Francis E. Dart, assistant professor of physics, will speak on "Science and Religion" at a fellowship supper Wednesday.

A coffee-tea time is scheduled from 2 to 5 p.m. Thursday at Westminster House.
